

90 freshmen begin nursing studies at Duke

(Continued from page 1)

In addition to Melton, freshmen from other states are:

Connecticut — Virginia Ford Daine and Maura Mikell Lyren of Riverside; Patrice Winfield Danaher and Jacquelyn Hilary Still of Orange; Nancy Ann Noveck of Plainville; Lynn Elsie Robinson of North Haven; and Margaret Helen Wegner of Greenwich.

Delaware — Diane Marie Thompson of Hockessin.

District of Columbia — Ann Louise Beuchert of Washington.

Florida — Wendy Elaine Murphy of Miami; Catherine Lynne Parsons of Venice; and Mary Ellen Wright of Fort Lauderdale.

Georgia — Donna Lee Steward of Tucker.

Hawaii — Claudia Gertrude Gerard of Wheeler Air Force Base.

Illinois — Louise Catherine Bendix of Wilmette; Melinda Lea Montgomery of Northbrook, and Rebecca Lynn Williams of LaGrange.

Maine — Susan Elizabeth Petersen of Scarborough.

Maryland — Tina Sherry Alster of Silver Spring; Laura Diane Dobbins of Chevy Chase; Susan Debra Grodsky of Timonium; Natalie

Suzette Johnston of Linthicum Heights; Lisa Bernadette Morra of Rockville; and Susan Patricia Wheeler of Towson.

Massachusetts — Lynn Anne Carter of Weston.

Michigan — Karla Mae Jacobus of Grand Rapids.

Mississippi — Mary Lynn Crews of Oxford.

New Jersey — Jacqueline Ann Clemens of Cherry Hill; Susan Candace Coddon of Englewood; Juli-Anne Cook of Fair Haven; Pamela Ruth Frommelt of Morris Plains; Janet Adele Haley, Susan Christine Livingston and Georgene Alicia Whelan of Summit; Wendy Ann Lamp of Mendham; Alexis Stephanie Makris of Woodcliff Lake; Karen Leslie Mulle of Haddonfield; Susan Colleen Patterson of Cranbury; Laurie Jo Polhemus of Annadale; Eugenia Sarantos of Bernardsville; Karen Ann Schramm of Westfield; Robin Snowden of Colts Neck; Marianne Tango of Washington; and Loretta Frances Thompson of South Orange.

New York — Patricia Ann Beatty of Centereach; Tracy Ann Boylan of Manhasset; Nancy Lynn Broad of Fredonia; Laura Ann Cabbie of Coram; Leslie Karen Haas and Stacey Beth O'Haire of Huntington; Kathleen Marie Hale of Bridgeport; Catherine Jeannette Harris of Bedford; Catherine Elizabeth Holley of Schenectady; Michele Ann Kessler of Oswego; Roseanne Moore of Brooklyn; Denise Marie Munzel of Baldwin; Marie Elizabeth Murphy and Angela Totten of Rye; Rochelle Mona Oeslander of Merrick; Karen Long Perfetto and Janel Blanche Volz of Garden City; Paula Frances Sorensen of Rockville Centre; and Eileen Veronica Tomaselli of Pearl River.

Ohio — Wendy Sue Atkinson of Moreland Hills; Mary Beth Bollin, Nancy Jean Glankler, Nancy Louise Holditch and Jennifer Susan Troutman of Cincinnati; and Ellen Grey Donaldson of Wooster.

Pennsylvania — Kirstin Selma Abrahamsen of Malvern; Carol Lynne Snyder of Wallingford; and Janice Ruth Wanchock of Sewickley.

Rhode Island — Diane Susan Eckelmann of Rumford.

South Carolina — Ruth Lea Ellis of Greenville.

Texas — Margaret Elizabeth Sovey of Ft. Worth.

Vermont — Virginia Louise Beggs of West Hartford.

Virginia — Pamela Lee Morgan and Cheryl Ann Morrison of Richmond.

West Virginia — Amy Maria Torlone of Huntington.

Wisconsin — Sharon Ann Rather of Milwaukee.

Package offers tour of the arts

The Durham Arts Council and the Durham Chamber of Commerce are offering the chance to "tour" Durham's cultural offerings, support the community's arts and the "Durham First" campaign, and get a package worth more than $50 for only $19.75.

The Durham First Arts Tours begins Sunday when the Durham Theatre Guild presents Noel Coward's "Private Lives," at 8 p.m. in the Arts Council building, 810 W. Proctor St.

Booklets of tickets may be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce on the fourth floor of the Wachovia Bank Building, downtown, or at the Arts Council.

Purchasers of the Arts Tour package will receive The Arterie, the Arts Council's monthly newsletter, as well as admission to each of the 14 events. Additional tickets are available for friends or relatives for each event.

Tour Patrons will receive VIP treatment at the events with a tour, reception or talk.

A limited number of tickets are available, and these should be purchased before Sunday evening's performance. For more information, call 682-2133 or 682-5519.

Other events scheduled are:

Oct. 11, Milwaukee Dance Company; Oct. 14-16, Pocket Theatre: "If You Don't Like My Ocean, Don't Swim in My Sea"; Oct. 23, Durham Civic Choral Society and North Carolina Chamber Players; Nov. 6, Annyce

Alvarez: Opening reception; Nov. 12, National Clogging Exhibition; Nov. 19, North Carolina Chamber Players; Nov. 20, Durham Symphony; Dec. 2, Duke Chapel Choir: "The Messiah"; Dec. 4, A Holiday Season Celebration; Dec. 5-20, Durham Art Guild: Annual Member Christmas Show; Dec. 11, Fenner Douglass; Recital on the Flentrop Organ (followed by tour of Duke Chapel); Special, New Performing Dance Company: dance classes in October for ticket holders.

Asst. development director, estate planner named

The appointments of two new staff members in the Office of Development have been announced by Richard B. Hayes, director.

Toby Bethea has been named assistant director and Eleanor D. Kinney has been appointed to the new position of estate planning officer.

A 1963 graduate of Davidson College, Bethea served two years in U.S. Army Intelligence prior to taking a position with McGraw-Hill Book Co.

He was employed by the College Division of Science Research Associates, Inc., Palo Alto, Calif., in 1970 as business editor and became western regional manager in 1974.

Bethea's duties at Duke will include involvement in the specific areas of annual giving, endowment and special gift groups.

Kinney holds A.B. and J.D. degrees from Duke, granted in 1969 and 1973 respectively, and an M.A. awarded in 1970 by the University of Chicago.

She returns to Duke from Cleveland, Ohio, where she worked with the firm of Squire, Sanders and Dempsey and held several posts during the 1976 Democratic Presidential Campaign.

As estate planning officer, Kinney will develop and coordinate programs to promote deferred giving to the medical center, Hayes said.

BETHEA

KINNEY

Insurance to be discussed

The presumption that national health insurance will lead to socialized medicine will be a central subject at a 7 p.m. meeting today at the Holiday Inn West.

The meeting will be sponsored by the Congress of County Medical Societies, the Private Medical Care Foundation and Private Practice, a medical journal.

Discussing health care under socialized medicine in their countries will be Dr. Samuel Birenbaum of Ontario, Canada; Dr. Denis Mackey, vice president of the General Practitioners Society of Australia; and Dr. Anthony J. Partridge, an orthopaedic surgeon from Sussex, England.

Discussing the American health system will be Rep. Philip M. Crane, R-Ill., a member of the health subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee; Cleland F. Baker, vice president of corporate planning for Burroughs Wellcome; Dr. Gary North, economist and historian; Dr. Frederic M. Ball of Charleston, S.C.; and Dr. Francis A. Davis of Shawnee, Okla., president of the Congress of County Medical Societies.

October 7-14, 1977

The Medical Center Calendar lists lectures, symposia and other medical center activities. Notices should be sent to Box 3354, Hospital, no later than one week prior to publication. If last minute scheduling makes it impossible to send a written notice in time, please call 684-4148.

Friday, October 7

1 p.m.

Network for Continuing Medical Education (NCME). Program on "Dermatology Clinic." View in Rms M405 and 2031 at Duke and Rms D3008, C6002 and C7002 and Bldg 16 and the Va Hospital.

7 p.m.

Discussion of national health insurance, sponsored by the Congress of County Medical Societies, Private Medical Care Foundation and Private Practice, Holiday Inn West.

Sunday, October 9

6 p.m.

Benefit dinner for AAUP Legal Defense Fund, sponsored by Duke, UNC and NC State chapters, Village Dinner Theatre.

Monday, October 10

12 noon

Pathology Research Conference. Dr. J.R. Sommer, professor of pathology, "Quick Freezing Preparations for EM," Rm M204.

Tuesday, October 11

6 p.m.

Duke University Management Club. Dinner at 7 p.m. following a refreshment hour. Speaker: Dr. Charles W. Jarvis, dentist-turned-public speaker, from San Marcos, Texas. West Union Ballroom.

Wednesday, October 12

1 p.m.

NCME. See Fri., Oct. 7 for program and viewing areas.

Thursday, October 13

12:30 p.m.

Microbiology and Immunology Seminar. Jim McGinnis, "Palindromic Sequences in Eukaryotic DNA," Rm 418, Jones Bldg. Council on Aging and Human Development. Dr. J.E. Meyer, director, psychiatric clinic, University of Gottingen, Germany. "Eating Behavior of Normal and Demented Aged Persons," Rm 1504, Gerontology Bldg.

"Sure, it's milk! The head of our department has ulcers."