

UP, UP, AND OVER!—After a trial run, the air conditioner (see photos on page 1) was attached to the boon with hooks and lifted up over the hospital's front entrance and into the well above the courtyard cafeteria. The air conditioning unit was set down on rollers and moved to its permanent location by hand Monday morning.

Opportunities for laughing, looking, dancing, listening

Whether you want to participate or just watch or both, there are a number of local events scheduled for those with artistic interests and/or skills.

Funny meteor

"The Meteor," a comedy about a man who leaves his own funeral and sets out for a series of outrageous escapades with baffled doctors, beautiful mistresses and eulogizing ministers, is playing this weekend at North Carolina Central University.

Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. tonight and Saturday. There also will be a special 3:15 p.m. matinee Sunday.

Tickets are $1 and $2 in advance, $1.50 and $2.50 at the door. Call 683-6242 for more information.

Graphic display

Works by student artist Edward Gomez are on display in the Flowers Gallery (West Campus) through March 20.

An Angier B. Duke Memorial Scholar, Gomez is a Trinity College junior, majoring in philosophy, political science and design (studio art).

The exhibit includes photographs, drawings and several examples of graphic design and features a series of original drawings done by Gomez to illustrate Evelyn Waugh's novel "Vile Bodies."

American Dance Festival

To mark its move to North Carolina, this summer's American Dance Festival will offer one of the most internationally famous faculties of its 45-year history.

Thirty-five faculty members will teach 50 classes to 300 dance students at Duke from June 17-July 29.

In addition, the festival will present a wide range of workshops and special projects along with a series of more than 30 public performances by renowned guest and resident companies, faculty members and students.

For further information and/or applications contact the American Dance Festival at 684-6402 or Box 6097, College Station, Durham 27708.

Beverly Sills and friends

The Friends of the College will offer six performances during the 1978-79 season.

The series opens with the Trinidad Folk

Festival, Oct. 20-21. Subsequent performers will be the Royal Winnipeg Ballet, the Gewandhaus Orchestra of Leipzig, Festival of Russian Dance, Beverly Sills and the Philadelphia Orchestra directed by Eugene Ormandy.

All performances will be given in Reynolds Coliseum, North Carolina State University, Raleigh. Admission is by season membership only. A single membership costs $10.

For tickets, call Mrs. H.S. Perry, 489-6982.

March 3-10, 1978

The Medical Center Calendar lists lectures, symposia and other activities of interest to faculty, staff and students. Notices should be sent to Box 3354 no later than one week prior to publication. If last minute scheduling makes it impossible to send a written notice in time, please call 684-4148.

Friday, March 3

12:30 p.m.

Biochemistry Seminar. Dr. W.K. Joklik, professor and chairman, Dept. of Microbiology and Immunology, "Proteins of RNA Tumor Viruses and Their Precursors," Rm 147, Nanaline H. Duke Bldg. Coffee at 12:15 in the lobby.

12:30 p.m.

Seminar, jointly sponsored by the Department of Ophthalmology and the Pharmacological Sciences Training Grant. Dr. Felix Bergmann, Dept. of Pharmacology, The Hebrew University School of Medicine, Jerusalem, "Pharmacology of Optic Nystagmus in the Rabbit," Rm 408, Nanaline H. Duke Bldg. Coffee at 12:15.

1 p.m.

Network for Continuing Medical Education (NCME). Program on "Ophthalmology in Clinical Context." View in Rm M405 at Duke and Rms D3008, C6002 and C7002 and Bldg 16 at the VA Hospital.

Monday, March 6

2 p.m.

Anatomy and Ophthalmology Seminar. N.S. Sutherland, director, Centre for Research on Perception and Cognition Experimental Psychology, The University of Sussex, Brighton, England, "Visual Object Recognition," Rm 273, Sands Bldg. Coffee and cookies at 1:45.

Wednesday, March 8

1 p.m.

NCME. Programs on "Defibrination Syndrome or Disseminated Intravascular Coagulation? A Laboratory Diagnosis," "Dyspnea + Fever, a Pediatric Emergency" and "Reversing Vasectomy: Factors for Success." See Fri., March 3 for viewing areas.

8:15 p.m.

Roundtable on Science and Public Affairs. Dr. Donald Kennedy, commissioner, Food and Drug Administration, "Current Issues in Federal Food and Drug Policy," Gross Chem Lab aud.

Thursday, March 9

6 p.m.

Management Club. Dr. Louis Robinson, director of scientific computing, Data Processing Division, IBM, White Plains, N.Y., "The Future of Computers in Our Lives," East Campus Union. Admission by membership or guest tickets.

"Scalpel!"