Moffett, Seaton, Brooks, and Reese prepare to set up for the shot of a UNC player.

U. N. C. clips Rams

By John Howarth

In one of the best games of the season the SCC kickers fell short in their bid to take UNC.

The Rams traveled to Chapel Hill to meet their J.V. team. The game started with UNC taking possession of the ball first. The Heels scored first on a drilled shot from the side in the middle of the first quarter. But no more than a minute later Bill Hardin boomed in a 45-yard score to tie the game 1-1. In the second quarter the Heels scored again. After that the game was nip and tuck until Zee Branch headed a shot into the goal to make the score even 2-2 to end the first half.

The third quarter was a hard-contested battle, each team fighting to put itself in the lead. But neither could capitalize to do so. The fourth quarter was the same as the third quarter until UNC scored with about three minutes remaining. The Rams fighting to come back found themselves in front of the UNC goal in position to score when the final gun sounded.

SCC bows to UNC-W

By Bill Hardin

Wilmington College Seahawks came to SCC soccer field looking for another overwhelming victory. UNC-W got the first lick in, when they scored in the opening minutes of the game. Luck seemed to be with the Seahawks, but later changed when John Howarth kicked in a direct free kick from 30 yards out to tie the score 1-1.

The second quarter opened with a lot of fierce action around the two team's goals. Wilmington struck with a head ball, making the score 2-1, Wilmington's favor. Luck came up again for SCC when Howarth kicked an indirect free kick which the goaly had touched but had failed to stop. This score by Howarth made the score 2-2. The first half came to an end with the score tied.

In the second half the providence of luck seemed to work against the Rams. Midway through the third quarter UNC-W got a penalty shot off a handball from Jim Carey. Seahawks scored making the score 3-2. The forces of nature were working against the Rams. Wilmington had a direct kick which they made and the score was 4-2. The third quarter was over and the fourth quarter was started.

In the fourth quarter there was no scoring but there was a lot of hot action around both goals. Rams pushing fiercely, but with no success, SCC had no score. The end of the game the Rams were on the bottom of the score which was 4-2.

Homecoming planned

Tuesday, November 11, SCC's Homecoming committee held a meeting in room 108 in the Technical Building. The purpose was to make and discuss how the candidates for homecoming queen would be nominated and elected. It was decided that any girl interested in becoming SCC's Homecoming Queen, should turn in a picture of herself. The picture should be larger than billfold size (5 x 7 or larger). They are to be given to Veronda Stanley or Joyce Bernard by December 2. These pictures will be posted on the bulletin board. From those candidates six will be chosen by the basketball players as finals. This selection will be done on December 3.

The qualifications for all candidates are as follows: (1) She must be a full time student; (2) she must be single; and (3) she must have a 2.0 GPA.

There will be a campus wide election in the Auditorium. The student body will vote on the six candidates on December 4.

The six candidates will need escorts during the Homecoming game. The Homecoming Queen will be announced during half-time on December 6, at SCC's Homecoming game.

Plans for the Homecoming Parade have been dropped due to unexplainable circumstances.

SCC faces uphill battle with 4 lettermen back

By JIGGS POWERS

WHITEVILLE—It looks like an uphill grind for Coach Joe Nance's Southeastern Community College Rams basketball team during the 1970 schedule.

For Nance, in his fourth year as SCC's only basketball coach, has only four lettermen back and only one regular starter on hand from the Rams team that gave the college its only winning sports season. The 1969 basketball team at Southeastern finished with a good 17-12 mark.

And, as in most of the seasons previous, Nance will also be bothered with a height complex. His tallest man expected to play will be 6-5 Greg Hagins, a former All-Waccamaw Athletic Association and All-East star from Fairmont High School.

His returning lettermen include Maliston Stanley, a Jiggs Powers Scholarship winner last year as a freshman and one of the top performers of the winning team, who is a 6-2 sophomore and from Shallotte Union. He's a forward and center. Other vets include Brodie Andrew, 6-3 sophomore forward from Snow Camp; Al Brice, 5-10 guard and sophomore from Tabor City; and Clyde Malpass, 6-0 sophomore forward from Clarkton. The only other member who saw action—and that only for 30 seconds before turning an ankle that ended his season last year is Don Dantzler of Tabor City, 6-1, freshman who plays either guard or forward. Stanley weighs 180; Andrew, 170; Brice, 155; Malpass, 160 and Dantzler, 175.

Hagins, a 175-pound freshman, will play center.

Another fellow who is expected to be heard from considerably is Steve Buffkin, 6-3, 175-pound sophomore from Tabor City, recently announced as the latest winner of the Jiggs Powers Athletic Scholarship. He was one of the top scores and the leading rebounder as a freshman scholarship man at Southwood Junior College last year before transferring to Southeastern.

Page Connally, 5-9, 160-pound sophomore guard from Wilmington originally of Martinsville, Va., is another fellow who has been looking good in drills. Other members on the 17-man group still drilling hard add working hard for spots on the 12-man squad Coach Nance will announce at the end of the quarter, are the following:

Oliver Blue, 6-1, forward-guard, who weighs 170 and is a freshman from Booker T. Washington, Clarkton, with Air Force cage experience; Charlie Groves, former Chowan football player from Burgaw, who is currently a 6-3, 215-pound Rams forward; Joe Stanley, 6-0, 165-pound freshman brother of Maliston from Shallotte Union; Larry McCall, 5-7, 145-pound freshman guard from Booker T., Clarkton;

Also, Sam McBryde, 5-9, 180-pound guard from Whiteville Central; Carlton McDowell, 5-9, freshman, 160-pounder from Clarkton's Booker T. Washington; Alex Singletary, 6-5, former Mount Olive of Whiteville, center who weighs about 210; Craig Land, ex-Whiteville Wolfpack forward, 200-pound, 6-0 sophomore; and Curtis Thompson, former Whiteville Central cager who is a 190-pound, 6-0 freshman forward.

From his winning club of 1969, Coach Nance lost Jim Burris of Wilmington; Mickey Fortner of Clinton; Warren Troy of Whiteville Central; Alex Wyche of Whiteville and Dennis Myers of Tabor City.

Nance said Maliston Stanley, Page Connally and Oliver Blue had been quite impressive in drills; particularly in a scrimmage held, Wednesday. "But," said the good-natured Rams mentor, "we need a lot of work in all departments, more than we have time for before that first game at Florence, S.C. against the University of South Carolina at Florence on Friday, Nov. 14.

"You know," continued Nance, "we have but one regular starter back from last year, Maliston Stanley. Brice and Malpass started, but not regularly. That 17-12 record of last year looks mighty good at present. I feel if we can just break even this winter we'll be going well.

"Our height problem is bound to catch up with us. And, the boys have a lot to learn. They seem to be pretty good group but they're behind in some departments. Our schedule will be tougher, too, as we play most of the tough community colleges, plus The Citadel plebe (freshman) team and also Mount Olive, Chowan, Southwood, all varsity teams from the Tar Heel-Cavalier Junior College Conference."

Cagers rip Florence

Southeastern found victory in its opening season attempt, downing the USC at Florence basketball team, 71-63. The game was played at Florence on Nov. 14.

Leading the scoring for the Rams was Greg Haggins, who tossed in 22 points, Oliver Blue ripped off 13 points and Dan Dantzer hit for 10 to help pace

SCC. Southeastern had to overcome a height advantage held by the opposition, but came on strongly in the second half to ensure the victory.

Coach Nance said that his team, despite the victory, "did not play to their capability." Their chance to do so will come on Nov. 15, at Southwood Junior College.
