

J C Amick

THE ELON COLLEGE WEEKLY.

VOL. I. New Series.

Greensboro, N. C., Wednesday, November 2, 1910

No. 25

DOCTOR WICKER HONORED.

The American Christian Convention in quadrennial session at Troy, Ohio, last week elected Dr. W. C. Wicker of the Chair of Mathematics and Philosophy in Elon, Secretary of the department of Sunday schools for the next quadrennial reunion. This is a worthy honor, worthily bestowed.

THE BOOK CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. W. A. HARPER.

The ladies' book club which meets every Friday afternoon met with Mrs. W. A. Harper last Friday. The Club is reading Shakspeare. The play for Friday was Part First of King Henry IV., three first acts. The members of the Club present were Mesdames, T. C. Amick, J. M. Saunders, J. W. Patton, E. L. Moffitt, J. Fletcher Somers, W. L. Smith, W. P. Lawrence (taking the part of Mrs. Alma Wilson) and J. L. Foster.

THE COSMOPOLITAN CLUB.

The Cosmopolitan Club held its second fortnightly meeting with Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Harper last Tuesday evening. The speaker of the evening was Prof. N. F. Brannock. His subject was "The Beginnings of Chemistry." That part of the address dealing with the Chemistry of the Ancients is published in this issue of the Weekly. Members of the Club present were: Dr. W. C. Wicker, Profs. N. F. Brannock, W. A. Harper, T. C. Amick, W. P. Lawrence, Rev. J. W. Wellons, Mr. A. L. Lincoln, and Mesdames T. C. Amick, W. P. Lawrence and W. A. Harper.

The evening was most pleasantly and instructively spent. Prof. Brannock, always of a studious inclination has had that inclination intensified by post graduate work in Johns Hopkins' University. His paper in the presentation of which he showed himself an impressive reader and his familiarity with his subject as was shown in the discussion which followed show him growing into riper scholarship.

The next meeting of the Club is with Prof. Brannock at West Dormitory, Tuesday evening, Nov. 15. The subject for this meeting is "The English Novel Since 1740," and the principal paper is to be presented by Professor W. P. Lawrence.

NOAH'S PATENT SPINNER.

Mr. W. T. Noah has perfected a very ingenious spinning machine for the production of cotton yarn. He has it ready for the manufacturer and purposes getting it on the market early in 1911. He has a complete spinner in his knitting mill and runs it to spin part of the yarn for his knitting mill.

Mr. Noah finds that there is a bright outlook for the knitting mills. He has recently had offers of contracts at advanced prices covering the capacity output of his mill for more than twelve months to come.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR LEADERS FOR NOVEMBER.

The following Christian Endeavor leaders for Nov. have been appointed by the prayer meeting committee:

Sunday, Nov. 6. Leader, Mr. B. J. Earpe. Subject: "Secrets of Happiness," Job 5: 17-27; Proverbs 3: 13-18.

Sunday, Nov. 13. Leader, Rev. H. E. Truitt. Subject: "The war against the saloon, Enlist!" Heb. 2: 1-20.

Sunday, Nov. 20. Leader, Prof. N. F. Brannock. Subject: "How does God want to be Thanked?" Ps., 100: 1-5.

Sunday, Nov. 27. Leader, The Missionary Committee, Prof. T. C. Amick, chairman. Subject: "My Favorite Hero or Heroine, and Why." Heb. 11: 32-40.

FINAL CHURCH CONFERENCE.

The final Conference of the local church for this conference year was held Wednesday evening after the regular mid-week prayermeeting. Dr. Wicker conducted the prayer meeting and Rev. J. W. Wellons presided over the church conference.

The treasurer's report showed more than funds enough in hand to meet all Conference and other obligations. Delegates to the Annual Conference, which meets with the church at Pleasant Grove Tuesday after the third Sunday in Nov., were elected as follows: Prof. W. P. Lawrence and Mr. W. T. Noah. Alternates, Mrs. J. W. Patton and Prof. W. A. Harper. Miss Annie Watson resigned as treasurer of the church on account of sickness in her home after serving most efficiently and successfully. Mrs. W. E. Lowe was elected in her stead.

LOCALS AND PERSONALS.

—Miss Mamie Fonville of Burlington spent Friday night here with her sister, Miss Sadie.

—Miss Nell Caspy, of Greensboro, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Miss Barnes.

—Mr. M. W. McPherson has returned to the college and resumed his studies, after an absence of several weeks on account of an afflicted limb.

—Those who attended the Proctor-Kernodle marriage in Graham last Wednesday were Mesdames Wilson, Patton, Lawrence, Harper, Atkinson, Misses Wilson and Patton.

—Mr. Bun Hearne went to Clayton to spend Sunday.

—Miss Willie Ames of Graham, N. C., a former student here, visited Miss Barnes last week.

—Dr. Moffitt returned Saturday from Troy, Ohio, where he attended the American Christian Convention, which was in session there.

—Miss Goldei Holland, of Suffolk, Va., a graduate of the College, attended the Proctor-Kernodle marriage, then spent the remainder of the week here with Miss Pitt.

—Mr. E. S. Welburn of Greensboro spent Sunday here.

—Mr. Junius Kernodle, accompanied by his sister Miss Blondie and Dr. J. O. Atkinson, left last Monday night for Suffolk, Va., where on Wednesday he was married to Miss Ruth Jones. Rev. J. O. Atkinson performed the ceremony. They left for Washington for a few days. They will make their home at Elon.

—Mrs. H. M. McAllister, known by the friends of the college as Miss Ramsey, who was a teacher in the music department here for several years, visited Mrs. Moffitt on her return to Lumberton from Graham where she acted as dame of honor at the Proctor-Kernodle marriage. She had her little son Hugh Alexander with her.

—In the Y. M. C. A. Saturday evening Mr. S. D. Scott was the leader. The meeting was good.

—Miss Sudie McCauley led in the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon, using as her subject the Good Shepherd. An interesting meeting and very well attended.

—Dr. Beaman, presiding elder of the Durham district of the M. E. Church, spent Friday night with Rev. C. O. Durant.

—Mr. P. H. Coggins, of Wilmington, spent Saturday and Sunday at Rev. C. O. Durant's.

—Miss Franki McNeill spent Saturday and Sunday at her home near Greensboro.

—Dr. J. T. Newman has been confined to his room for several days with la-grippe.

—Mr. E. L. Daughtry, of Franklin, Va., a member of the Junior Class, arrived Saturday night to resume his studies.

—The following young men attended the State Y. M. C. A. Bible Conference at the A. & M. College, Raleigh, Saturday and Sunday: Messrs. Ralph McCauley, J. C. Rowland, W. B. Roberson, R. L. Walker, W. D. Loy and A. L. Hook.

—Rev. G. W. Holmes, pastor of the Methodist Protestant church at Mebane, preached a very good sermon here Sunday at the eleven o'clock service.

—In the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting Sunday evening Mr. J. F. Morgan led, using the subject, "What is our denomination doing in the foreign field?"

—Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Atkinson spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. Beale Johnson, Cardenas.

—Dr. Moffitt and Rev. J. W. Wellons left Monday for the Eastern Virginia Conference.

—Messrs R. A. Campbell, J. S. Lincoln, and W. N. Huff went to Greensboro Tuesday to hear Vice President Sherman speak, and to play with the Gibsonville brass band.

—The comedy, Mr. Bob, which was given in the auditorium Friday evening was an entire success. The large audience enjoyed it very much.

—Mr. Ralph McCauley spent Friday night in Chapel Hill.

—Prof. W. A. Harper attended services at the Presbyterian church in Greensboro Sunday, and made an address on the Organized Class.

—Mr. Tom Chandler of Virgilina spent Sunday here with his wife, who has been at her father's, Dr. G. S. Watson's, for several weeks.

—Miss Macie Farmer went to Greensboro Saturday shopping.

—Rev. C. C. Peel, assisted by Rev. J. O. Cox, conducted a successful revival last week at Belews Creek.

—The town commissioners in session Saturday evening ordered South Williamson Avenue opened and worked up to the corporate limits. They also condemned Holt Avenue from Summerbell Avenue south of Rev. L. I. Cox's residence to Barrett Avenue and Barrett Avenue forty feet wide from Holt to South Williamson.

—Misses Bessie Havey and Rosa Quinmely, the former of Kinston, and the latter of Grifton, N. C., teachers in the Gibsonville Graded School, were guests of M. S. J. W. Patton Friday night, and saw the comedy "Mr. Bob."

A Pathological Luncheon.

Eight or nine women, assembled at luncheon, were discussing ailments and operations, as eight or nine, or one or two, or sixty or seventy women will. The talk ran through angina pectoris, torpid liver, tuberculosis and kindred happy topics.

"I thought," commented the guest of honor, "that I had been invited to a luncheon, and not to an organ recital."—Everybody's.

Knew What Ailed Him

In the bright sunlight on a railroad station in Georgia slept a colored brother. He snored gently, with his mouth ajar and his long, moist tongue resting on his chest like a pink plush necktie. A Northerner, climbed off a train to stretch his legs, unscrewed the top of a capsule and, advancing on tiptoe, dusted ten grains of quinine on the surface of the darkey's tongue. Presently the negro sucked his tongue back inside his mouth and instantly he arose with a start and looked about him wildly.

"Mistah!" he said to the joker, "is you a doctah?"

"Nope."

"Well then, kin yo tell me whar I kin fin' me a doctah right away?"

"What do you want with a doctor?"

"I'm sick."

"How sick?"

"Powerful sick."

"Do you know what's the matter with you?"

"Suttinly I knows what de matteh with me—mah gall's busted!"—Everybody's.

"Is your coffee the kind mother used to make?"

"Certainly."

"Then, please, let me have tea."