Let's back 'em up!

Sure! We WILL back 'em up!

We need Class pep, Society pep, Club pep. PEP.

If you have more than you can do, try doing it, and see how easy it is to do the impossible.

Back up your athletic teams.
Support your Society. Put the best you have into your class activities. Do your duty by your social club. Co-operate with your religious organizations. Support your college in every way.

Then, after you are gone from college life, your friends can still benefit by the impress of your effort upon alma mater.

CHURCH SERVICES FEATURED BY SPECIAL MUSIC

Dr. D. P. Barrett Speaks for Evening Service.

The usual services were held in the College auditorium last Sunday morning and evening. The musical program at the morning service was especially enjoyable.
A male quartet consisting of Messrs. Messick, Hutchinson, Garvey and Rhodes, rendered a selection at the opening of the service. Mr. Alexander sang the solo part of the anthem, "How Long Wilt Thou Forget Me," by Carl Flueger, and Mrs. Katherine L. Sturm played a beautiful violin solo, "Salut d'Amour," by Elgar.
In the morning sermon Dr. N. G.
Newman, the pastor, stressed the Cross as the central fact in human experience of all who follow in the Master's trail. Christ's enemies uttered a great truth when they said, "He saved others, Himself He cannot save," and just as true is it that "He that gain-eth his life shall lose it, and he that loseth his life for my sake and the Gospel's shall save it."

"Wherever men and women are following the Master all the way," declared the speaker, "they are being crucified on unseen crosses. The greatest thing about human life and that which has elevated man to fellowship with God and Jesus Christ and with his fellowmen is the spirit of the cross. It is the spirit that makes a man or woman willing to lose himself. The way of the cross leads to the finding of self." Dr.
Newman further discussed the life which devotion to the cross leads to and asserted that the man the world honors is the man who lives for others, who will suffer himself rather than to cause others to suffer, the man who will lose in a material proposition rather than to sacrifice the right, the man who will not save himself in ease and comfort when his fellowman is in need. Two of the greatest privileges of life are happiness and service, and the highest form of happiness and service is only to be found by going the way of the cross, by living by the principles of the cross of Jesus Christ.

At the evening service, in the chapel, the speaker was Rev. D.
P. Barrett, of Ponce, Porto Rico, who is residing with his family at Elon College during his furlough.
He presented in a very graphic manner the conditions and opportunities in Porto Rico, an island with a population of one million and a half people, with only about 15,000 church members. The natural beauty of the country was pictured, and the change since the Bible has entered the island in conditions among the natives, showing progress in spite of the great need still apparent. Today, instead of no schools, no doctors, no hospitals, no nurses—hospitals have been erected and much disease has been eradicated, and schools have been established in most parts of the island. "Do missions pay?" is a question frequently asked Dr. Barrett,
