

NOT EASY

It is not always easy—
 To apologize.
 To begin over.
 To take advice.
 To be unselfish.
 To admit error.
 To face a sneer.
 To be charitable.
 To be considerate.
 To endure success.
 To keep on trying.
 To forgive and forget.
 To profit by mistakes.
 To think and then act.
 To keep out of the rut.
 To shoulder deserved blame.
 To maintain a high standard.
 To recognize the silver lining.
 But it always pays.—Rough Notes.

THE RULE OF THREE

Three things to fight for—honor, country and home.
 Three things to think about—life, death and eternity.
 Three things to govern—temper, tongue and conduct.
 Three things to love—courage, gentleness and affection.
 Three things to hate—cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.
 Three things to delight in—frankness, freedom and beauty.
 Three things to avoid—idleness, loquacity and flippant jesting.
 Three things to wish for—health, friends and a cheerful spirit.
 Three things to admire—intellectual power, dignity and gracefulness.

Mother—"Hush! You two children are always quarreling. Why can't you agree once in a while?"
 Georgia—"We do agree, mamma. Edith wants the largest apple and so do I."—Houston Post.

LIBRARIAN ANNOUNCES SET OF LIBRARY RULES

for time the book is kept after the first period.
 Novels from reference desk may be loaned to any student of the college for two days. A fine of ten cents per day is charged for each day the book is kept over-time.
 Current magazines are loaned at the reference desk and are subject to the same regulations as the reference books.
 Other magazines are loaned at the stack room desk to be kept for one day, unless otherwise provided for by librarian in charge. A fine of five cents per day is charged for each day the magazine is kept over-time.
 Only Seniors and librarians are permitted to go in the stack room.
 Members of English III-B class will be permitted to renew the books of fiction for two days in addition to the allotted time.

There is no freedom of the press in Soviet Russia. Private newspapers are forbidden to touch on political matters.
