Miss Irma Moricle was here for the week-end.

Mr. "Red" Turner, of Mooresville, a former student of Elon, was on the campus for a while Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Hoyle Efrid was at home for the last week-end.

Messrs. George Underwood, Ralph Coggins, and Morgan Stanley, former students of Elon, were here for the game Saturday.

Miss Hattie Brown is at her home on account of her father's illness.

Miss Marion Nalle spent the week-end at her home in Sanford.

Miss Nannie Stout went home for the week-end.

Miss Virginia Brown's mother was here to see her yesterday.

Miss Lois McFarland went to Greensboro for the week-end.

Messrs. "Crip" Brawley and Dave Miller, former students here, were on the hill Sunday.

Messrs. C. W. Kipka, I. D. Eure, W. H. Ellis, and Charlie Walker attended the Press Association meeting held at Davidson Thursday and Friday.

FRED DICKKERSON ELECTED PRESIDENT OF FRESHMAN CLASS

campaign speakers.

Shortly after the withdrawal of the candidates the campaign speakers commenced to magnify the platform upon which their candidate stood and bring to light the noble characteristics that fitted him for the high office of president of the Freshman Class. The campaign speakers indirectly stated that they wanted a president that stood for a high protective tariff on all Sophomore foolishness, and who stood pat on an anti-bunk platform.

Catholicism did not enter into the campaign, but State boundary lines did. Some one objected to Roberts because he was not a North Carolinian, but the objection was laughed down. They laughed not because it was so hilariously funny; but in tribute to its absurdity.

Sally Elder Speaks For Watson

Sally Elder, a popular and attractive co-ed, made an impressive and influential speech in behalf of Wral Watson. Her speech came at an opportune time and did much to mold opinion in favor of Mr. Watson.

The Ballots Are Cast

It took only three ballots to give Dickerson the required majority. After he was elected by a majority the class gave him a unanimous vote to show that they were solidly behind him.

Wral Watson, who ran second to Dickerson, was elected vice-president; Mabel Barrett, secretary, and Frances Ring, treasurer.

Among the outstanding campaign speakers were: Truett, Peoples, Lewis, Jones, Richardson, Parker, Chandler, Parks, Yates, Lockhart, and Miss Elder.

Elon College should be very proud of the Class of '32. The class consists of a select group of clean-cut young men and women who have something to say and know how to say it. They are the backbone of Elon College and are fully capable of helping the Maroon and Gold to the goal of success and distinction. Three cheers for the Freshmen!! They are the leaven of the campus!

Queen's College where the association convened.

The delegation received instructive criticisms in journalism from different prominent speakers. On the whole, the convention was a success.

The convention adjourned Saturday noon, after having selected Greensboro College (G. C. W.) as its next meeting place.

A nameless black and white cat in Bloomfield, N. J., became wedged between two buildings and its screams attracted so much attention that the fire department was called out to remove it.

STUDENTS GIVE PARTY ON HALLOWE'EN NIGHT

Mr. Register's speech was magnificent. We are still wondering what he had to say.

Again, Stanfield appeared in the stage. This time he sang a solo, which was very good. Every one, even Dr. Amick, enjoyed Stanfield's singing.

The best number in the program was the reading given by Prof. Van Cleave. He also gave a fine demonstration of his dancing ability. I am sure that every one enjoyed Prof. Van Cleave's dancing and reading.

Finally, every one of the spectators was asked to walk around the gym, so that the winner of the prize given for the person who wore the best costume could be chosen. The judges decided that Miss MacKiunny had the best costume; therefore she obtained the prize, a magnificent ring.

Before the feast was over, every person present was given a pack of good peanuts and an apple. All this was furnished by the Religious Activities Organization.

COLLEGE CONFERENCE CONVENES AT DURHAM

colleges should advertise, and the decline of Latin as a curriculum subject in the high schools and colleges.

For next year the conference will consider how to better the quality of teaching of college professors and what can be done to pool the expression of college administration, particularly as to deans and presidents. There will also be a thorough discussion of the philosophy of education.

Mr. Cannon continues president of the Registrar's Conference. Dean Hook remains on the executive committee athletic conference. Dr. Amick is on the committee on loan funds and social life of the campus. President Harper is on the legislative committee.

MUSICAL PROGRAM PROVES SUCCESS

The Schubert musical program on Thursday evening, October thirtieth, by Mrs. Cora Cox Lucas and Mrs. Henry Ware, of Greensboro, proved to be quite enjoyable and uplifting to all music lovers who attended. At the beginning of the program Mrs. Lucas read a paper on the life and works of Schubert. Then she and Mrs. Ware gave the following program:

By the Sea—(Liszt transcription), Mrs. Lucas.
Impromptu in B Flat—Mrs. Lucas.
Linden Tree—Mrs. Ware.
Du Bist Die Ruh—Mrs. Ware.
Minuetto—Mrs. Lucas.
Moment Musical—Mrs. Lucas.
Walt in A Major—Mrs. Lucas.
Hedge Roses—Mrs. Ware.
Who is Sylvia?—Mrs. Ware.

After this, Mrs. Ware favored us with an encore entitled, Lady Moon. This was by special request.

Mrs. Lucas concluded the program with two of Schubert's Impromptues in A Major.
