

Highlights Of The Elon Year In Pictures

One could hardly have gone wrong in choosing a Queen for our annual May Day Festival from this group of candidates. Left to right they are Margaret Nash, Frances Cochrane, and the Queen, Dot Edwards

Just a typical scene in one of our dormitories. Here we see Richard Weatherly, Ivan Fagan, Ivan Olis, A. D. Cobb, Maurice Peebles, and Bill Archer enjoying what is commonly called, a bull session.

Hendrickson vs. Kirkland. That was really the theme of this picture which was taken during the second of a two-game series played here between Elon and Catawba. The game finally ended in a tie, called off because of rain.

Looking happy over the prospects of graduation in a few days, the largest senior class ever to graduate from Elon is pictured above, grouped for one of their class day shots. Final exercises will be Tuesday, May 27.

Football season ended only after a strong contending Elon team had left its mark of defeat on several of their opponents. Catawba took the crown this season which they shared with Appalachian last year. Here is a picture of the Elon first string line primed for action.

This group looks happy about something and if our memory serves us right, this was snapped just before Christmas holidays, while this group were sharing their happiness on a neighborhood tour.
