NEW CLUB FORMED IN EAST DORMITORY

On third floor of East dormitory, a new and exciting club is being brought to life. Called the "Mud Pack" club, and headed by Marco (Mud Pack) Cheli, the club is rapidly growing and progressing into one of the better-liked clubs on the campus. Details of the club are not available as yet, but Mr. Cheli, President of the club, released the following statement this morning: "I feel as though this club will appeal to all the fellows on the campus. It has done wonders for me." Available information points out that Marco may be on the road to success, as his facial experiments are achieving astonishing results. The names of the members of the club were not available. However, Mr. Cheli stated that he is assisted by Kate White in his experiments. "It's done wonders for me" was the only statement Miss Kate White would release to your columnist.

DON MILLER WILL PRESENT PIANO RECITAL FEB. 17, AT ELON HIGH AUDITORIUM

Don Miller, American-born pianist, will be presented in a recital February 17 at 7 o'clock in the Elon High School auditorium.

Even in Pennsylvania, where musical prodigies are thick as whipped cream on coffee, Mr. Miller was a special kind of little boy. As an infant, only music could keep him still. At two he climbed on the piano stool, picked out with one finger bits of his mother's piano repertory. From that day till the present Mr. Miller has continued his musical ambitions, and his performance here is sure to please all the local music lovers.

DER KISS
A kiss is a kiss
And a thing apart---
Its joy a bliss
That comes to the heart:
That boots all doubt
In the seat of the pants,
And, for the moment---at least---
Takes a chance.
