

What's What

By EMERSON WHATLEY

promptly 7:19 (the very last minute) about six members of the basketball squad came sleepily into the dining hall for breakfast. For some of the boys it was a new experience, for others, it was something that they knew went on every morning, rain or shine, but they just hadn't got around to looking into it. Anyway, Coach Adcox has begun to enforce some of his training rules that the boys were taking too lightly. It will be a complete success the morning Don Miller and John Rossi, the upperclassmen managers, walk into the dining hall for breakfast.

How about those new yells that the cheerleaders have now? Nice going gang. And a bouquet to Frances Truitt for helping them out with those new yells. Mrs. Truitt, who was then Frances Creef, was a cheerleader here during the years 41-42.

The way things are shaping up now, it seems as if there may be only about five men on the Elon basketball team when North State Tournament time rolls around this spring. With Bob McCotter and Willard Marlette already in the Naval Air Corps, Fred Yarborough expecting his call any day, Harry Turner leaving the 22, and Wayne Taylor on the Army Air Corps waiting list, the prospects for a large squad are almost nil. But then, only five men can play at a time.

Girls' Sports

By EDNA REITZEL

The intramural basketball tournament opened the night of January 10 and Ladies' Hall defeated Second Floor West by a score of 26-6. The losing team is to be credited with excellent sportsmanship—both forwards and guards, while Warren was high scorer. Ladies' Hall proudly congratulates Helen McBain for her high scoring, along with Carrie Stanford, Hazel Johnson and Iris Westbrook.

Now is the time to sign up for intramural table tennis. Each team manager should see that there are representatives signed up from their group. Please hand this list in to the Physical Education Office by January 17.

Practice table tennis during the intramural basketball games, if you like, in the east entrance of North dormitory.

(Since bleachers have been put in the gym it looks as if you will have to wait until spring to play shuffleboard.)

At last we have two applications for Junior manager from the girls. That, my "fellow sportsmen" is excellent sportsmanship. These two girls are Helen Newsome and Sarah Brewer. Both of these girls will be in line for senior manager next year.

In the gym classes Coach Adcox has a very interesting system for the girls. He divides his group, each hour, into three sections. One section plays basketball, another table tennis, and the other bowls.

Many of the girls in these gym classes are also on intramural teams, but some who haven't been heard from before, who are very good athletes, are Helen Boone, Ruth Breedlove, Sylvia Joseph, Margaret O'Brien, Jane Simmons, and scores of others. These girls show much interest, too.

Girls, it looks much more stylish to wear gym suits or shorts to gym classes. Please do this until your suits, which have been ordered, arrive.

High Point Panthers Outscore Christians

In a thriller played January 16 before the largest crowd yet to witness a local game, the High Point College Panthers outpointed the local cage aggregation and came out on top by the score of 41 to 30. The game was close until the last few minutes when Sheek, star Panther forward, started rimming the basket from mid-court to score 6 quick points. The Elon team, with a half time lead of 16 to 15, began to come apart at the seams in the last few minutes.

Teachy, with 9 points, and Sheek with 11, led Coach Virgil Yow's cagers on the offense and Hix, lanky center, was sudden death on anything that came under either basket. Coach Yow substituted at frequent intervals and no man played the entire game.

Bill McEntire led the Elon scoring with 11 points, 9 of these coming in the first ten minutes of the game. Wallace Owen played a good game at forward for the Maroon and Gold boys and tossed in 6 points to add to their cause. Fred Chandler played his best game of the year as he came down with a large per cent of the rebounds from each basket.

The lineups:

JOE WHITAKER VISITS CAMPUS

Joe Whitaker, S 1/2 A.M.M., has been a recent visitor on the campus. Joe finished Elon in the class of '43 and received induction papers on graduation day of that year. However, he did not actually enter the service until the following August.

He has spent many months training in different states. Joe is now stationed at Municipal Air Port, No 1, Jacksonville, Florida, where he is studying operational training for PB4Y as an aircrewman.

ELONS LOSES TO GUILFORD IN FIRST CONFERENCE GAME

In the first conference game of the season, January 6, the Guilford College Quakers outpointed the Elon Christians in the Elon gym by the score of 43 to 36. The game was close up to the last eight minutes and then with Farlowe tossing them in from all angles, the boys from Guilford went into a lead that was never challenged.

Wallace Owen and Danny Banks, with 9 and 10 points respectively, led the Maroon and Gold offense with Fred Register and Wayne Taylor playing their usual good game on defense.

Farlowe, with 22 points, led the Quaker offense with Captain Eddie Hirabayashi (it's spelled right) stopping a lot of Elon plays before they got started.

ELON DROPS CONTEST TO LENOIR RHYNE

In a rough and tumble contest Friday, January 12, before the largest crowd yet to witness a local contest, the Lenoir Rhyne Bears defeated the local basketball aggregation by the score of 34 to 24. It was the second straight conference loss for the Elon cagers and it put them on the bottom of the North State Conference.

Each team scored 10 field goals but the Bears made the most of their foul throws to sink 14 of 26. Baxter and Michael led the Lenoir Rhyne team with Owen and McEntire leading the Fighting Christians.
