High Point Downs Elon

The High Point Panthers used four unearned runs to edge the Elon Christians 4 to 3 in a Carolinas Conference baseball game here Tuesday afternoon, April 30th It was the second time this season that the Panthers had nosed the Christians by a single run.

The High Point outfit plated a single run on a wild pitch in the third, but Danny Hall hammered a solo homer over the left field wall in the bottom of the same inning to tie the count, and Elon went on to score single runs in both the fourth and fifth racks to grab a 3 to 1

An Elon error gave the Pointers another marker in the fifth, and then in the eighth another infield error enabled two Panther runs race home with the tying and wining runs. The Christians out a m on third with one out in the botto of the ninth but failed to plate the homer and single, while Phil Cheek contributed a pair of singles to the Christian attack. Bob Harris, Panther center fielder, led the Panthers with four singles in five

Christian '9' Claims One Tourney Win

The Christian baseball squad, after finishing third in regular season play in the Carolinas Conference, could manage only one win in three starts in the first annual Carolinas Conference tournament, which was held at Lexington on May 9th, 10th and 11th, and this gave them the third spot in the loop's first diamond titular meet, which was won by the Pfeiffer Falcons.

The Christians opened the tournament play with a hard-hitting 11 to 2 victory over the Catawba Indians on Thursday afternoon, May 9th, but they were victims of a rampaging crew of Pfeiffer Falcons in a sec ond-round game on Friday, May 10th. Then, playing in a semi-final battle, the Elon nine dropped a lopsided 14 to 6 decision to the Catawba Indians on Saturday afternoon, May 11th. Pfeiffer topped Catawba 6 to 0 that night for the

ELON 11, CATAWBA 2

The Elon nine used potent bats and a fine mound job by Lefty Everett to whip the Catawba nine 11 to 2 in the first round action in the tournament, with Christian batters pounding three Indian hurlers for a total of seventeen hits during the fray. Every Elon batter hit safely at least once, and six of them had two hits, with Pete Crook leading the assault with three safeties in five trips.

Lefty Everett, Elon's big sophomore mound star, worked a masterful game on the hillock for the Christians. He allowed two hits in the second and fourth, with Catawba getting one run each time but he silenced the Indian bats the rest of the way, fanning seven while walking two, allowing six hits. The line score:
