

THESE FIVE CHRISTIAN FOOTBALL PLAYERS WON ALL-STAR HONORS AT SEASON'S END

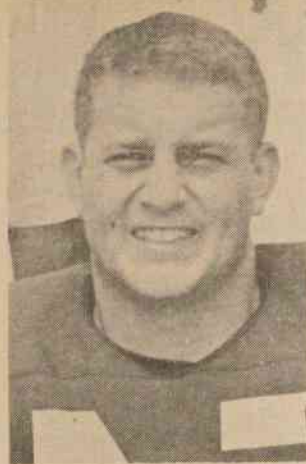

BURGIN BEALE

MARTY BONNETT

WES GILLIAM

LLOYD KANIPE

RICHARD MCGEORGE

The Elon College football squad, which surprised the pre-season experts by grabbing down third spot in the Carolinas Conference standings this fall, also did well in the post-season all-star pickings with no less than seven spots on the All-Conference, All-District NAIA and All-State squads, the seven spots being apportioned among five Elon players who are pictured above. Burgin Beale won a berth on the All-Conference and All-District NAIA and an honorable mention on All-State; Marty Bonnett placed on the All-Conference; Wes Gilliam was named to the All-District NAIA; Lloyd Kanipe won a spot on the All-Conference; and Richard McGeorge placed on both the All-Conference and All-State, being the first Elon player since 1964 to land a post on the All-State.

REID THIS

No Sermon

When Red and Brown are blue, it's a black day.

I was sore dismayed when I picked up my handy-dandy Maroon & Gold to discover that Coach Red Wilson and Editor Don Brown both lament that most ancient of bugaboos, student apathy.

This exists at fire and brimstone Elon, does it? I am all the sorer dismayed, then.

Doubtless, this silly column will not transform all of you into the temperament of cheerleader Sandy Bergman. I'm no preacher, anyway. Read on, then, as I promise no sermon.

The thing that annoys Red was the lacklustre turnout for the Homecoming pep rally. If I were a persuader, I'd probably say that if I could drive down from Norfolk for the bonfire, you laggard could have at least rolled your bumpusses out of the sack to walk across the road to the grande blaze.

One reason the gathering may have been sparse was, I understand, a lack of communication (between administration and students. Some of the folk know not when things were to happen. That's what an underclassman told me--and if that is the case, the dadgum powers that be better get on the ball, that's what.

You know, when I was at Elon, we didn't even have a football team, much less a rooty-tootin' rally. I would have been beside myself with jollification if we had have been so blessed. True, we did have a sorry wartime football program of which I was a member, so you know we had nothing to yell about. Looking at a contemporary case, how about poor little Mars Hill College. The administration there just upped and said foie with football. Obviously, Mars Hill's band, cheerleaders, new stadium, football team and student body are going to gain not much with that ruling. We have all of these and in high degree of quality, too. I, for one, am pleased to shout about it, and I'm not even in the immediate midst, either.

And when I was, our varsity athletic program consisted of a basketball team sporting a 3 and 17 mark. Yet, I recall one game over at High Point in which we held them to a 21-point victory margin, a moral win for us. It was part of a double header with Wake Forest playing that Chapel Hill bunch. Lordy, what a time. Us raggle-taggle Elons, replete with gongs, bells and sore throats, outdid rooters of the other three schools.

Which now brings us to a coach's sounding off in a campus paper...

Bojabbers, I'm overjoyed about that. I'd be disappointed if he didn't show concern. I recall a basketball mentor at one of my three alma maters became most upset when the students booed when opposing players tried foul shots. He walked out

CAGE GAMES

Elon 74, Ga. Southern 73.
Elon 70, Shorter 52.
Elon 59, Wofford 55

(Remaining Games)

Dec. 2 -- Guilford (A)
Dec. 4 -- At. Chris. (A)
Dec. 6 -- Lenoir Rhyne (A)
Dec. 9 -- High Point (H)
Dec. 13 -- Campbell (A)
Dec. 29 -- W.S. State (A)
Dec. 30 -- A. and T. (A)
Jan. 3 -- Wofford (A)
Jan. 6 -- Lenoir Rhyne (A)
Jan. 8 -- Campbell (H)
Jan. 11 -- At. Chris. (H)
Jan. 13 -- Catawba (H)
Jan. 20 -- High Point (A)
Jan. 27 -- Catawba (A)
Jan. 29 -- Appalachian (A)
Feb. 1 -- Presbyterian (A)
Feb. 3 -- W. Carolina (H)
Feb. 5 -- Pfeiffer (A)
Feb. 7 -- Appalachian (H)
Feb. 10 -- Presbyterian (H)
Feb. 14 -- Pfeiffer (H)
Feb. 17 -- W. Carolina (A)
Feb. 21 -- Erskine (A)
Feb. 24 -- Guilford (H)
Feb. 28 to Mar. 2 -- Conference Tournament.

on the court one night and held up the game until the home crowd quieted down. The boy, minus interference from the stands, made the shot--the winning point for his side.

We lost a game, sure. But we won a lasting reputation.

Tourney Win

(Continued from Page 3)

Half-time: Elon 35, Georgia Southern 34.

Elon subs -- Marshall 1. Georgia Southern subs -- Bahman 5, Helm 8, Stevens 3.

ELON 70, SHORTER, 52

The Fighting Christian cagers followed up their win over Georgia Southern by defeating Shorter College 70 to 52 on Saturday, November 25th, to clinch the title in the Cumberland tournament. The Christians moved to the front in the first half by a 36-31 margin and widened that margin down the stretch.

Elon's Henry Goedeck, big junior center, racked eight field goals and 10 of 11 free throws for 26 points to pace the Christians to their win. Tommy Davis and Bill Bowes also hit double figures for the Eloncagers in the final contest, with Davis getting 12 and Bowes 10 points.

In addition to Henry Goedeck being chosen "Most Valuable" for the tourney, Elon's Tom McGee also made All-Tournament guard.

THE LINE UPS:

Elon (70) Shorter(52)
F. Bowes (10) Goodwin(14)
F. Caddell (9) Weaver (2)
C. Goedeck(26) Rogers (16)
G. McGee (9) Oxford (5)
G. Davis (12) Prince (6)
Half-time: Elon 36, Shorter 31.

THE LINE UPS:

Elon subs -- Berry 2, Marshall 2, Sigmon, Berry 2, Hailey Hicks. Shorter subs -- Hodges 2, Bunce 5, Edwards 2.

Hudson Edits Phi Psi Cli

(Continued from page 2)

as organizations editor; Chris Smith, features editor; Jerry Webb, of Asheboro, sports editor; and Jeanette Robinette, of Virginia Beach, Va., and Francine Gifford, of Norfolk, Academics Editors.

The class editors include Mary Anne Thaxton, of Roxboro, for the freshman; Vicky Riley, of Burlington, for the sophomores; Martha Kellam, of Spencer, Mass. for the juniors; and Jane Frost, of Burlington, for the seniors.

Raymond Bailey, of Elon College, is the staff photographer, and David Johnson, of Orlando, Fla. is the proof reader. Others working on the staff are Kathy Harper, of Sanford; Margie McClung, of Athens, Ga.; Elaine Beach, of Charleston, S.C.; Cherry Apple, of Reidsville; Linda Wesley, of Roxboro; Sally O'Neill, of Sycamore, Ill.; Carolyn Cameron, of Sanford; John Massey, of Burlington; Bob Hardee, of Greensboro; and Pam Sauvaine, of Richmond, Va.

SMILE-A-WHILE

High school students at an American school in Europe, children of the United States Armed Forces personnel, were given a social studies quiz in which one of the questions was: "What is a word which means to give help to one's enemies?" The expected answer was of course: Treason.

However 23 American children answered: Foreign aid.

On the first day of kindergarten the teacher was explaining that anyone wanting to go to the restroom should hold up two fingers.

After a moment's thought, a little girl near the back of the room softly inquired, "How's that gonna help?"

Song Of Elon

(Continued from page 2)

our thoughts of holly, mistletoe, Christmas trees, gifts, and the jolly old man in the red suit. As we go about enjoying the festivities, let us take time to think about the meaning of Christmas.

You may feel you have had enough "religion" in 111 and 112; yet, all of us have occasions when we did and said things we should not have, one of the signs of our lack of spiritual growth. As college students we owe it to ourselves to widen our scope of living through the pattern set by our Lord.

During the holiday season we hope you will seriously contemplate the true spirit and purpose of Christmas. All of us need to conscientiously dedicate ourselves to the principles demonstrated by the greatest professor of all, the Professor of Life, whose birth we celebrate at Christmas.

Honor Group

(Continued from page 1)

more; Larry Duriam, junior business administration major, of Burlington; Shirley Faircloth, junior English major, of Burlington; Sandra Maxine Isley, junior elementary education major, of Burlington; Carol Ann McKinney, junior history major, of Bakersville; Gerry Stephen Oxford, junior biology major, of Elon College; Linda Bowland Thompson, junior history major, of Burlington; and Linda Jane Wesley, junior English major, of Roxboro.

Williams

(Continued from Page 3)

and Duke's Frank Ryan did score a TD for the West in the fourth quarters, but it was too little and too late to win the game.

In addition to Perry Williams and his educated toe, the Elon Christians were represented in the Sudan Bowl game by Lee Johnson, fine senior center from Asheboro.

