

Austin Pitches Win At LR In 9-7 Tilt

REID THIS!

I am the original ugly duckling.

My old classmates feather their nests in handsome style. Meanwhile, Old H. sits at his dumb typewriter.

Now, this past weekend, for instance.

One of my old cronies, Dean William Whitehurst at Old Dominion College, was named by Republicans to try after Porter Hardy's Senate position. Dr. Whitehurst was not only selected but chosen with unanimity. And a standing ovation, as well. He is fed up with expensive government and socialism. So, he may just do something about it while I peck away at this 1918 Underwood and merely complain about it. Back in grade school, Whitehurst and I used to carp about math tests together. At that time, neither of us dug figures. I have since revised my estimation of, ahem, figures. The girl kind, at any rate.

Then, there is Thomas N. McNamara. He is a freshman Virginia state assemblyman. He, too, wants to put some sense back into government. He speaks well on this nowadays. First talk of his I recall was back in junior high. We had an English exercise in proper ways to reply to formal invitations. The example was: "Miss Brown, at home." To which T. Mac replied: "Tommy McNamara, likewise."

Another of my academic associates seems to be doing all right at a little college down in Carolina. When I met him, he was a big old farm-hand immigrating from Altamahaw to Elon College, where he eventually got to be president. I reckon you may have heard of him. Name's Dr. J. Earl Danieley.

Each one of these longtime friends makes a great deal more money than I do and probably occupies a more important station in life.

But I'm still richer. Banging away at this old typewriter, I just know, makes Old H. happier. Writing for my supper is about the only responsibility I've got.

Track Victory

(Continued from Page 3)

Linker (E), Andrees (G).
 DISTANCE: 136 ft.
 JAVELIN: Linker (E), Moore (E), Leisinger (G).
 DISTANCE: 152 ft. 4 in.
 440 YARD RELAY: E-
 lon. TIME: 45.1 secs.
 MILE RELAY: Elon.
 (Forfeit).

Big John Austin, hard-throwing Elon freshman pitcher, finally broke the win barrier as he pitched the Fighting Christian baseballers to a 9 to 7 victory over the Lenoir Rhyne Bears at Hickory April 8th.

The Elon pitcher, who had "All-Everything" honors in high school and Legion baseball, found the college competition tough earlier this spring. In spite of pitching some very fine games, he had dropped his first three college starts to strong opposition.

The big right-hander, scattered eight hits for the Bears in turning back the Lenoir Rhyne squad. Austin also enjoyed a fine day at the plate, hitting safely three times in five trips to aid the Elon attack.

The Christians jumped on Steve Sisk, Bruin starter, for six runs in the first inning and then fought off late-inning rallies by Lenoir Rhyne to clinch the victory.

Woody Posts New Record In Elon Golf

Charles Woody, Elon College golfer from Roxboro, fired a red-hot 66 over the Arrowhead course on April 9th, to pace the Fighting Christian golfers to a well earned 13 1-2 to 10 1-2 victory over the Catawba Indians in a Conference links match.

The 66 by Woody was the lowest ever recorded by an Elon golfer in inter-collegiate play, the previous best round having been a 67 by Bobby West in a meet some years ago. Woody had a 32 for the front side and a 34 on the back side.

The win against the Indians was Elon's first in three golf meets played so far this year, for the Christians had previously dropped meet to Campbell in a meet here by a 19 1-2 to 4 1-2 count and had lost to Peiffer in a rainswept meet there by a 12 1-2 to 7 1-2 margin.

Pi Gamma Mu

(Continued from Page 1)

allenge?"

The visiting speaker is a graduate of the Citadel and holds both the M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he served for five years as an associate dean of the graduate school.

His major field of interest has been in the American national government, but he has served specifically in the field of water resources and recreation, having been a special consultant to the U. S. Committee on Outdoor Recreation and the North Carolina Water Resources Commission.

THEY HAVE LED ELON JUNIOR CLASS THIS YEAR

After leading the junior class activities through this 1967-68 term to date, the junior officers pictured above will be turning the leadership tasks over to newly elected successors the first week in May. The junior officers shown left to right in the picture are George Scott, of Suffolk, Va., president; Mary Anne Underwood, of Suffolk, Va., secretary-treasurer; and Paul Bleiberg, of Wilmington, Del., vice-president.

Elon Wins 12 To 11 Contest From Apps

Ten pitchers paraded to the mound and suffered through ten errors by their teammates as the Elon Christians grabbed a wild-and-woolly Conference baseball victory by a 12 to 11 count at Boone on April 9th.

To give an idea of just how wild the game was, it is worth noting that only three of the total of 23 runs were earned. The Apps failed to earn a single run, and Elon earned only three of their dozen counters.

The Christians sent four pitchers into action, and they allowed a total of 15 walks to go with the eight errors of their mates, all contributing to the Mounties' total. John Austin got credit for the win, his second in two days.

Joe Rinaca topped the Elon hitting with two hits in three trips, while Dempsey Herring hit safety twice in five tries. No other Elon batter had more than a single hit.

The score:

Elon.....12 R. 10 H. 8 E.
 Appalac..11 R. 9 H. 2 E.
 Capps, Colenda (3), Austin (7), Byrtus (9) and Brady; Williams, Dolecki (3), Jones (3), Phillips (6), Brown (7), Phillips (9) and Billings. WP--Austin. LP--Phillips.

CHOICE '68

(Continued from Page 1)
 puter tabulation.

The ballot will contain names of possible Presidential candidates, selected by the national Board of Directors. The candidates will be grouped by party, but students will be allowed to cross party lines. Votes will indicate three choices for President, the first choice being the only one used for the actual Primary tabulation; the second and third choice being used for statistical analysis.

The ballot will also have spaces for the voter to indicate his age and political party affiliation or preference. Responses to referenda issues concerning Vietnam and government spending may be recorded on the ballot.

The slate for Choice '68 consists of Fred Halsted, Socialist Workers; Mark O. Hatfield, John V. Lindsay, Richard M. Nixon, Charles H. Percy, Ronald W. Reagan, and Harold Stassen, Republicans; Robert F. Kennedy, and Eugene J. McCarthy, Democrats; and George C. Wallace, American Independent.

The names of both Lyndon B. Johnson and Nelson Rockefeller are on the sample IBM ballot, despite the fact that each has expressed his intention not to be a candidate for president. It is probable that special instruction may be issued concerning them before the voting next Tuesday.

SGA Leaders

(Continued from Page 1)

Officers of the rising senior class include Don Goldberg, of Suffolk, Va., as president; Sheldon Batchelder, of Silver Spring, Md., vice-president; and Mary Anne Underwood, of Suffolk, Va., secretary-treasurer.

Officers named for the rising junior class include Phil Larrabee, of Virginia Back, Va., president; Dave Harrison, of Norfolk, Va., vice-president; and Cindy Brinn, of Virginia Beach, Va., secretary-treasurer.

Those named to lead the rising sophomore class are Lee Loy, of Burlington, president; Sherri McGirt, of Charlotte, vice-president; and Pam Sauvain, of Richmond, secretary-treasurer.

High Point Topples Elon In 11-5 Tilt

The High Point Panthers blasted forth with an 8-run rally in the bottom of the eighth to break a 4-all tie and move to an 11 to 5 victory over the Elon Christians on the Panther field on March 29th.

Mark Gebicke and Nick Perlozzo both blasted homers for the Panthers in the eighth inning uprising, with Gebicke's blow sending one teammate home ahead of him. Perlozzo's homer was a solo shot.

Jimmy Freisinger, back in action at second base for the Christians after riding the bench with an injury, paced the Elon batting with a triple and single.

The scores:

Elon.....5 R. 9 H. 3 E.
 High Point.11 R. 8 H. 2 E.
 Austin, Colenda (8) and Brady. Blossie, Miller (30), Kaub (7) and Zenn. LP--Austin.