French Swiss Ski School joins with Elon College in program

by Coach Donald Kelly

Elon students may take up to four hours credit in snow skiing. The courses are offered through the French Swiss Ski College located in Boone, N.C. The skiing program covers the areas from the beginner through the advanced which involves a slalom course and racing techniques.

It is best that students take lessons before going to more advanced ski areas of the country in order to be safe and get the most for their money. Skiing skill should be placed above the social aspects of the sport, and this can only be done through proper training under certified instructors of skiing.

P.E. 115-A, one hour credit. One week skiing dates to be announced. The cost is $80.00 to the French Swiss Ski School and $20.00 cost of tuition to Elon College, totaling $100.00.

P.E. 115-B, three hours credit, January 11 through February 6 with a total cost of $275 to the French Swiss Ski School or $200 if you have a place in the area to stay, plus $60 tuition to Elon College for the course credit of three hours. The total cost would be either $335 or $260.

Costs covers everything except meals and transportation. Students should register for the courses during the pre-registration period in November. December 10 is orientation day for the courses. Students who register for the courses should come to Jordan Gym at 4:30 p.m. and meet in Room 214 with Mr. Kelly and a representative from the French Swiss Ski School to cover details of the course. If you have further questions concerning this course, contact Coach Kelly at Ext. 227.

Showband has one last show for you

by Gary Spittler

The "Showband of the Carolinas" will present their last home halftime performance Saturday during the Elon-Catawba clash. The band will perform drills and play music which will cause people in the stands to say "I believe in music." A "Yesterday" fanfare arranged by Prof. Jack White will bring the band onto the field, and they will march into spectators' hearts with "Those Were the Days." "Battle Hymn of the Republic" will feature the band and the Elon College Choir.

This show is at the half, the last home show this 1975 season.

by Mike Christie

Elon won their first soccer contest of the new season 1-0 over N.C. Wesleyan boosting their overall record to 1-4. Throughout the game the tempo was controlled by Elon who had possession of the ball most of the game. The score came in the second half, booted in by Peter Roughton. The game was played with injuries because of the physical playing of N.C. Wesleyan.

In the Homecoming game, the Christians lost late in the game 4-3. It was a very exciting match throughout, being Elon's best offensive play of the season. Goals were scored by Norm Downy and Peter Charles.

The most embarrassing game of the season was a 13-1 defeat by Belmont-Abbey. With the majority of their players foreign, they dominated the game completely. Elon's only score was by Peter Roughton.

In other games the team lost 10-1, 8-0 to UNC-CH and Pfeiffer Colleges respectively. Both opponents were very potent offensively and defensively.

In the Carolina game Joe Curtis scored the lone goal for the Fighting Christians. In both games freshman goalie Greg Hamilton played exceptionally well despite the high scores. He had 37 saves against Carolina and numerous others against Pfeiffer. Defensive credit must also be given to Bunny Carr in the Carolina game, even though the team lost both matches.

At 4 p.m. tomorrow Elon will play Atlantic Christian there and will return home on October 27 to face UNC-G.

Fighting Christians will battle to reign in SAC-8

by Gary Spittler

The Fighting Christian gridders blasted Bluefield State 41-0 and defeated Presbyterian 12-0 in the last two football encounters. Holding first place in the SAC-8, Elon will go into action this Saturday afternoon at 2 in another conference contest.

Elon blasted Bluefield State before a packed stadium in a homecoming affair and then traveled to Clinton, S.C. last week and defeated the Blue Hose. Both teams battled throughout the first half in the Presbyterian game to end the first half without a score from either team. Elon scored in the third quarter as Prince Deese ran from three yards out to put Elon on the board. The PAT failed and the battle got even stiffer. Later in the fourth quarter Howard Ferguson plunged in for the score from the four-yard line. The PAT again failed, and the defense kept either team from scoring to end Elon's second conference encounter 12-0.

This week in Burlington's Memorial Stadium the Indians of Catawba will battle the Fighting Christians of Elon in another SAC-8 contest. Under the leadership of Bill Faircloth, the Indians will bring a strong nucleus of a team from last year. Some standouts for Catawba are Kim Smith and Ron Adams in the backfield along with return guards Eddie Whitt and Vernon Hayes, tight end Kent Rabon, split end Vince Haydock and halfback Allen Simmons. Their strong defense will meet Elon's strong defense in what should be a big conference bout.

Elon vs. Catawba in the last conference game this season, so don't miss out and be sure to arrive early to avoid heavy traffic.

Sports Hall of Fame inducts five members

by Gary Spittler

Five of Elon's all-time outstanding athletes were inducted into the Sports Hall of Fame during special ceremonies held during the Homecoming-Parents Weekend festivities.

The Hall of Fame inductees included: Jesse Branson, a 1965 graduate and a basketball star and two-time All-American; Dick Caddell, a 1932 graduate and
