Tailback Dwayne Clark's five yard run in the fourth quarter gave Elon the lead, and the Christian defense held to give Elon a 24-21 victory over the Lenoir-Rhyne Bears.

The win boosts the Christians record to 4-0 overall, and 2-0 in the Carolinas Conference.

The Christians will have the week off before taking on Presbyterian in the annual Hall of Fame game in two weeks.

The home-standing Bears jumped on the board first as they returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown.

The Christians marched right back as Craig Taylor hit tight end Chuck Ward from 11 yards out to tie the score. Elon then grabbed the lead when freshman Chris Holley scored from four yards out.

Lenoir-Rhyne tied the game again, but with 38 seconds remaining in the half Clark took from five yards and the Christians went into the half ahead 21-17.

The Bears tied the score in the third quarter when Sam Bryson who earlier returned the opening kickoff, scored from four yards out.

Clark's final score was 24-21 when L-R quarterback Bryson fumbled at the Elon 10. The Christians then marched 45 yards for the winning touchdown.

NOTES: Linebacker Tony Seaton collected five quarters sacks.... Taylor was 15-4 passing for 121 yards.... Jaymont led the receiving corps with five catches for 41 yards.
