SNEAK PEEK: Cultural Calendar Fall 2010

Compiled by Pam Richter
Editor-in-Chief

September

October

November

December

Elon has a rich history of great speakers and events taking place on campus. This fall is no different. This year's cultural calendar is highlighted by Fall Convocation with Pervez Musharraf. Here's a sneak peek of the fall cultural calendar.

Sept. 7, Charles Cook, "A Look Ahead to the 2010 Election"

One of the nation's leading authorities on U. S. elections and a frequent guest on major network shows will present an overview of the mid-term elections.

Sept. 16, SLAMM! With Carmine Appice

An explosive, physical display of rock and rhythm led by drum icon Carmine Appice (Ozzy Osbourne, Rod Stewart, Vanilla Fudge, Jeff Beck). Described as "Stomp on Steroids," Appice and four young drummers transform buckets, sticks, oil cans, drain pipes, and even Dixie cups into an electrifying musical and theatrical performance.

Sept. 19, Carolina String Duo

Elon faculty members Carey Harwood and Kevin Dollar perform on guitar, banjo, and mandolin. From Fernando Sor to Chet Atkins, the Carolina String Duo plays a lively program covering the history of fretted instruments.

Sept. 21, Elon Common Reading Lecture with Rob Gifford, author of China Road

The 2010-11 Elon University Common Reading describes a 3,000-mile journey across China's Route 312, the Mother Road. Along the way, Gifford meets many ordinary people living in an extraordinary time; the generation building the new China. Despite their hope and the boon of recent years, Gifford recognizes that China is not stress-proof from the political, ethnic and environmental fault lines that will affect economic growth and social progress in the approaching decade.

Oct. 6-12, Department of Performing Arts presents Hedda Gabler by Henrik Ibsen

Ibsen's dramatic masterpiece follows the homecoming and destruction of one of western theatre's most sophisticated characters.

Oct. 12, Fall Convocation with Pervez Musharraf, President of Pakistan, 2001-08

During his eight-year term, President Musharraf championed the security and political future of his nation with high stakes for the world at large. In his Elon address, the president will participate in a moderated discussion into Pakistan and its role in today's global challenges.

Oct. 25, Liberal Arts Forum presents Rick Loomis, photojournalist

Pulitzer Prize-winning photojournalist for the LA Times, Loomis spent the last several years working in the most dangerous situations in Afghanistan and Iraq, and recently won the Pulitzer for a five-part series about our endangered oceans called "Altered Oceans." In a multi-media presentation, Loomis will share stories from his travels and on the ground perspectives of civilian experiences.

Oct. 28-30, Nov. 5-7 Department of Performing Arts presents Children of Eden

A joyous and inspirational musical about family and faith... not to mention centuries of unresolved conflict! Children of Eden is based freely on the Book of Genesis and tells the story of The Creation, Adam and Eve, Cain and Abel and Noah and the Flood. With a beautiful score, it's a heartfelt and often humorous look at the pleasures and pains of parenting.

Nov. 8, Hometown Heroes: Models of Community Leadership

Five people chosen by members of the class of 2013 will visit campus to be honored for service to their home communities and their commitment to the common good.

Dec. 3, Holiday Celebration with Luminaries

Hot chocolate, carol singing and hundreds of luminaries lining the walkways will mark Elon's annual Festival of Holiday Lights.
