THIS WEEK IN HISTORY - A NEW SALAD AND SOUP BAR

BRIAN REA | EVENT COVERAGE COORDINATOR

Students line up outside the newly reopened McEwen Dining Hall, which had to turn some students away after reaching its maximum capacity on Monday, Oct. 29.

NOV. 2, 2011. This week in history, Elon University students enjoyed a new addition to their eating options on campus.

During the first week of November 2011, Elon Dining Services and Auxiliary Services launched a salad and soup bar in Varsity Sports Grill, previously located in McEwen Dining Hall.

"Elon Dining saw a need for a retail salad bar on that side of campus," said Kate Nelson, then-marketing manager of Dining Services. "In an effort to add a convenient, health salad bar option to that side of campus, we chose to make that addition to Varsity Sports Grill"

At the time of the launch, students were loving the new option.

"The salad bar is really convenient for people who have to eat quickly, especially during lunch," said then-sophomore Conor Collins. "I've eaten here twice, both lunch times. They have salad and fruit, so it's a good variety."

Eight years later, Elon is celebrating the reopening of the newly renovated McEwen Dining Hall, which has been closed since 2017. The former area where Varsity Sports Grill was located is now an open area for students.
