

"FROM A GIRL'S POINT OF VIEW"

by Denyse Theodore

First of all I'd like to extend many thanks for the new Danish Modern furniture in New Dorm's lounges, and for our new public address system. We really appreciate all the foot fatigue both are saving us.

Have you all heard about the thousands of new inhabitants of New Dorm? They're brown and crawly, but almost too small to even see. No bigger than two heads of a pin, they're in our bureau drawers, on our washcloths, in the things on our closet shelves. The next thing you know they'll be on our ~~elset~~ pillows. They even get into all our caches of food, no matter how we seal them up, or hide them. And do we ever hear even a word of thanks? NO! If anyone knows any way of eliminating ANTS without ruining the food that we're trying to eat before they do, we'd appreciate any and all advice.

Have you gone to Sunday night meals lately? Seems that Elon students are keeping the Wrangler and Levi Companies in business. A visit to McEwen's water fountain will also prove interesting. On your left you'll see a real swinging group there to greet you. They go by the name Las Cucarachas, and they've taken over the Sanitation Program from Mr. Wells too. Now we really appreciate that, but isn't there a limit?

Best of luck to our football team this weekend. I hope we really scalp the Indians so ALL of our boys will get a chance to play. Let's all cheer them on to victory.....

If any of you girls have ideas and views about campus issues that you would like me to include in my column, please feel free to tell me, and I'll try my best to include them.

THE OPINIONATOR

by Allen Tyhdall

It occurred to me before writing this column that since I was a chapel checker, a good question for the first column of the Opinionator would be one concerning chapel. As most of you know, chapel was a three-times-a-week affair last year, but this year students are required to go only once a week.

Here are a few opinions on the question, "What do you think of the new chapel system this year?"

John Downs:Junior-"I'ts okay, it's a lot better than last year, that's for sure."

Billy Graham-Soph.-"Fine, I hope it stay s like it is."

Ned Jones-Soph. -"All right all the way. I like Reynolds."

Carroll Monger-Soph.- "I don't think it is as interesting as last year, but I think he is doing it right by having variety. I like the organ playing."

Sonny Pruett-Fr. - "From what I hear, it is better than it used to be."

Betty Strader -Soph.- "Oh, I like it because I don't like to trot to chapel twice a week and then listen to a boring chapel. But if you trot to chapel only once a week, you will get something out of it because you will not dread it."

Russ Phipps-Soph.-"I think they are much more interesting than last year and the new system is a big improvement."

Harvey Reavis-Soph.-"It is alot better than last year."

Charlie Somers-Sr.-"I like the set-up now because it gives the student a break at 10:00."

Bert Morrison-Soph.-"It is pretty good this year, I like that chapel with Doc Reynolds up there."

Rik Turner-Frosh-"It's all right I guess, If you gotta go, you gotta go!"

Wayne Pruitt-Jr.-"It's all right but the programs are getting worse and worse."

Lowry Sinclair-Soph.-"It's okay, but I have a problem already: cuts". The opinions shared in this column do not necessarily express the opinion of the columnist. See you next month around the campus with a new query about your opinions.

RAMBLING AT RANDOM

Some notes and news from the Oakland campii.....The upperclassmen who were left in the dark about returning dates this year have the US mail service to thank for the delay; but this may be third-class information.... There was a spirited freshman campaign this year which is to be commended, but it is too bad that most of the posters were ruined by unsightly masking tape which should have been put on the back of posters for the sake of neatness; also, the number of voters was discouraging...could this have
