

"dup"
08/18/6

The Voice - 11/5/48

Turkeyday
Classic, Nov. 25
F.S.T.C. vs. Md.

THE VOICE

"Digest Of Student Opinion"

Welcome To Homecoming
Ye Old Grads

VOLUME IV

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., NOVEMBER 5, 1948

NUMBER 3

Candidates For Miss Homecoming

Beauty, brains and popularity combine in these five charming State co-eds who are candidates for "Miss Homecoming of 1948." Left to right they are: Carolyn Burwell, senior of Oxford; Margaret La Huffman, senior of Fayetteville; Virginia Wimbush (standing), senior of Clarkesville, Virginia; Dorothy McCleod, junior of Laurinburg and Julia P. Judah, junior of Rahway, New Jersey.

GALA HOMECOMING

Homecoming festivities this year promises to be the biggest ever. No stone is being left unturned in the effort to present a homecoming spectacle that will be remembered for years to come. The celebration gets under way Friday evening, November 5 when the local drama guild, directed by Miss Lois P. Turner, opens its current season with the presentation of "The Emperor Jones" in the College auditorium at 8 o'clock p. m., followed by a rousing bonfire on the athletic field.

Beginning at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning, Bronco followers will stage a mammoth parade which will feature the local E.E. Smith high school band, the Harnett County Training School band, and the band from the Jordan-Sellers high school in Burlington, N. C. Here will be your collegiate color, floats of many and sundry kinds, and fancy-stepping majorettes; it will be a morning chugged full of enthusiasm preparatory to the "real thing" that comes off at 2:00 o'clock p. m., when the Gains-Scott Broncos, led

(Continued On Page 2)

Y. W. C. A. Maps Year's Activities

The Young Women's Christian Association under the Leadership of Miss Mollie Boone, a senior from Woodland, North Carolina, got off to a good start this year by taking an active part in the Freshmen Week activities. Misses Artelya Whitley, Mollie Boone, Josephine Mann, Alena Stokes, Thelma Garris, June McCowan, Dorothy Crawley and Lula Williams were members of the college committee with Dr. W. S. Maize as its chairman. At an informal get-together in the Smith auditorium, the "Y" girls told the newcomers of the history of the College and of the routine procedures necessary for getting settled at State. This was followed by a campus tour and an informal social. On Sunday the "Y" girls accompanied the freshmen to church.

Currently, the Association is tidying up the "Y" room so as to make it more comfortable and more attractive.

Members of the "Y" cabinet showed their appreciation for the good sportsmanship our football

(Continued On Page 8)

Students Extend Welcome To Freshmen

Greetings and felicitations to you who have come to join our college family. For a while, at least, the vacation period is over for you. When you entered the college gate, you automatically divorced yourself from all semblances of an adolescent and accepted the challenge and the accompanying responsibility of a college student. You must prepare yourself to meet the challenge you have accepted by girding yourself for the inevitable hurdles you will have to face in college. Don't console yourself with the idea that you can "play around" your first years and settle down later. The time is now! Self discipline, devotion to duty, scholastic achievement and whole-hearted co-operation exercised on your part will play a great part in your success as a college student.

There will be times when certain aspects of your college life may cause you to become disheartened. You may even violently disagree with the views and attitudes of those about you. We are happy to relate, however, that our college does not attempt to bring about uniformity of opinion. It stresses intellectual freedom; it encourages adherence to different

(Continued On Page 8)

Faculty Additions, Changes, Improvement

Additions to the College staff this year are Miss Wilhelmina Barnett, M. A., Howard University, History; Miss L. Minnetta Hunter, M. A., University of Pittsburgh, English; Miss Laura Beatrice Malcin, M. A., Virginia State College, Home Economics; Mrs. Willie Gannaway, House Directress; Mrs. Lila Haywood, R. N., St. Agnes Hospital, College nurse; Mrs. Beatrice Davis, B. S. A. & T. College, Stenographer-Clerk; Miss Lucy Ann Wadell, B. S., Bennett College, Dietitian and Mr. A. J. Pindle, B. S., Hampton Institute, Business Manager.

To the Newbold Training School staff have been added Miss Annie Mae Kenion, M. S., Atlanta University, M. A., North Carolina College whose place was recently taken by Mrs. Irene B. Rose, M. A., Columbia University; Mr. Hugh M. Jenkins, M. A., Boston University, and Mr. Orlando Hudson, M. A. Atlanta University.

Returning to his post as Chairman of the Department of Education

(Continued On Page 4)

Mrs. Seabrook At Science Meet

Mrs. Mae H. Seabrook, first lady of the campus, was in attendance at the meeting of the American Association for the Advance of Science held in Washington, D. C., September 13-17, 1948. Mrs. Seabrook is an instructor in the Department of Biological Sciences.

Fayetteville Girl, Homecoming Queen

As we go to press the announcement comes that a local young woman, the attractive Miss Margaret La Huffman, a member of the Senior class, has been elected "Homecoming Queen." Her attendants are Miss Earnestine LaGrande, of Roanoke, Virginia; Miss Dorothy McLeod of Laurinburg, and Miss Inez Fields of Oxford.

Speaker

Dean Joseph H. Douglass will speak on November 20 before the North Carolina College Conference which convenes in Greensboro, North Carolina.