

VICTORY WITH VICK

strong Winston-Salem eleven.

Winston-Salem scored twice in the first period, twice in the second and made good three conversions to take a 27-0 half-time lead. Their final score came in the third period, but they failed to make the extra point and the quarter ended with a 33-0 score in favor of the visitors.

The Broncos, threatening desperately throughout the final quarter, got to rolling and Hardison scored their lone touchdown with less than two minutes to play. The try for extra point failed. Winston-Salem thus wrapped up a neat 33-6 score and went home. Standouts for Winston-Salem were Troy, Davis, Murphy, Harrington, and Godwin. Tops for the Broncos were Hardison, "Bulldog" Black, Lewis, "Glue-Fingers" Colburn, "Horse" Gaines, "Hill-Side" McLaughlin and "Pretty" McCurry.

A Smile

A smile
Costs nothing.
But gives Much.
It enriches
Those who receive it.
Without making poorer
Those who give it.
It takes
But a moment,
But the memory of it
Sometimes lasts forever.
None of us
Is so rich or mighty
That he can get along Without it.
And none
Is so poor
That he can't be made
Rich by it.

Don't Worry

What professional men and women worry about at different ages has been charted by psychologists.

At the age 26, professional folk worry about making a good impression on people.

At 30, they worry about job security and economic problems—and this regardless of whether they live during prosperity or depression.

At 38, health is their chief worry; at 41, it's political issues; at 42, wife or husband troubles; and at 45, they are troubled about giving up lifelong ambitions.

After that, major worry concerns health.

Now that you know the "lifetime worry pattern," don't worry about it.—

Alma Mater

Our colors so true, oh hail,
white and blue!
To thee our voices ring.
Tho' seasons may roll, and changes unfold
Thy praise we'll ever sing.
All honors and love and loyalty,
We pledge our hearts anew,
Our Alma Mater, F. T. C.,
We hail thee, old white and blue.
We cherish each hall, each time-
honored wall,
Each bending tree and bower,
Tho' far we may roam, thy spirit leads on
To victory and power,
With courage and might and majesty,
March on old colors true
Our Alma Mater, F. T. C.
We'll stand by old white and blue!
