

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA NOTES

Delta Alpha Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority has engaged in several successful activities since the ushering in of the New Year, 1957.

We began our series of activities with the annual clothes collecting project for the Oxford Orphanage.

On Friday, January 25, the sorority showed its first 'News of the Month' film in the Seabrook Auditorium. This has now been adopted as a monthly project of Delta Alpha.

A Sunday School program was sponsored by the sorority January 27 based on church symbolism. It attempted to explain symbols used and certain customs that are observed in today's churches.

Monthly the members of Delta Alpha share in a Cultural Hour. During February Soror Mary T. Eldridge served as a guest consultant for an hour of classical music. She gave us information concerning opera in general and how we can learn to appreciate it. Under her guidance we listened to the opera "Aida" which was presented on the radio by the Metropolitan Opera. In the months to come we are looking forward to an hour in art with Soror Juletta R. Smith, a fashion review in April and an hour in religion with Soror O. T. Spaulding.

STUDENT COUNCIL, headed by Richard Woods, serves as a coordinating organ between the administration and the student body at FSTC.

Seven of Delta Alpha's members are graduating seniors. They are Sorors Nina Baten, Faye Bowser, Velma Dancy, Melba Johnson, Jacqueline McCrimmon, Mary Robinson, and Novella Whitted. Soror Mary L. Campbell graduated at the end of the first quarter. Good luck to you!

Delta Alpha Chapter

— Q U E N S —

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity had a full weekend of activities beginning on March 8. On Friday night at eight o'clock, a Talent Hunt was given by Delta Gamma and Beta Chi Chapters in the J. W. Seabrook Auditorium here on campus. The contest was won by Miss Marian Simmons of E. E. Smith High School, Fayetteville. She played a piano selection, Sonata (Opus 10 No. 1).

Second prize was taken by Carl Dockery of Monroe Ave. High School, Hamlet, N. C., for his piano rendition, Warsaw Concerto. Barbara Massey of E. E. Smith, Fayetteville, walked off with third prize for her vocal number, Habanera (from Carmen). The winner of the Talent Hunt will compete in the District Finals.

On Saturday, March 9, the Ques sponsored Sadie Hawkins Day. A race for the girls to get a man was run at noon and that night the girls escorted the fellows to the dance in the Lilly Gymnasium. Awards were given the two who looked most like Daisy Mae and L'll Abner. Phyllis Kincaid and John Reavis won the prizes. Everyone enjoyed himself as the girls kept busy tagging other girls for their dancing partners.

On Sunday, the Omegas had Memorial Services at the Sunday School hour.

The Delta Gamma Chapter of the Fraternity plans to give a scholarship to a deserving male student at the end of the school year. The chapter has also scheduled a Lenten Service Program, a chapel program, and an Omega Sweetheart Day.

The officers are Roger Scales, Basileus; Dick Woods, Vice-Basileus; Willie McGee, Keeper of Records and Seals; William Diggs, Keeper of Finance; Harold Ellis, Dean of Pledges; Harry Brown, Representative to Student Council; Alex Purcell, Representative to Pan - Hellenic Council Arthur Tompkins, Chaplain; John Reavis, editor to ORACLE and the VOICE; and Dr. H. M. Eldridge, advisor.

We, the Delta Gamma Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, hope to live up to the standards and traditions of the college and community.

Delta Gamma Chapter

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS

Give one word for "love of mankind"—Woman.

An interjection is a sudden explosion of mind.

An epistle is the wife of an apostle.

A myth is a female moth.

An epicure is a poet who writes epics.

Immortality is running away with another wife.

Henry Ford invented perpetual motion.

A spinster is a bachelor's wife. Ambiguity means having two wives living at the same time.

Extempore is a disease in dogs.

Cossacks are things which ladies wear.

The Pilgrim Fathers were Adam and Eve.

Nearly at the bottom of Lake Michigan is Chicago.

An oasis is a futile spot in a dessert.

Water is melted steam.

Water is turned into a viper when it gets too hot.

Blizzard is the inside of a fowl.

Goblet is a male turkey.

An adjective is a word hanging down from a noun.

Paraffin is the next order of angels above the Seraphim.

—School Board Journal and Greensboro Daily News.

A college student while taking an examination was asked to compose one verse of poetry including the words "analyze" and "anatomy." This is what he wrote:

My Analyze over the ocean
My Analyze over the sea
Oh, who will go over the ocean
And bring back my Anatomy.

Student Council Moves Ahead

The Student Council is still progressing after getting off to a good start last fall. Several activities have been sponsored by the Council in order to make the students of the college more comfortable and better adjusted.

As one of its project of the year the Council sponsored an Introductory Chapel Program. From this program, students were acquainted with the different organizations and their purposes on the campus.

Toward the end of the fall quarter, the Council sponsored a semi-formal dance in the Lilly Gymnasium. New students had opportunity to become better acquainted with the college family.

In the United Services Fund and the drive for funds for television sets on the campus, the Student Council made its contributions.

This school year the Council chose to work on the improvement of the canteen and the Student Union Room, and securing of a Student Council office.

During the CIAA Tournament, the Council, with James Smith in charge of arrangements, chartered a bus for students of the college to attend the game in Durham, N. C.

The Council is by no means altogether satisfied with its achievements, but it realizes that valuable experiences were obtained in the efforts put forth.

In the near future the Student Council plans to revise its constitution, beautify the campus, conduct a chapel program, and have election of the Student Council Officers for next year.

The Student Council invites the college family to be present at the Spring Blue Moon Dance, April 12.

Delta Xi Chapter

YOU GIVE THE ANSWERS

Fred L. Brooks, Jr.

Getting to be a well-liked teacher is no easy matter.

If we require large assignments of homework, they say we are cruel.

If we don't, they say we are soft and easy.

If we try to instill aesthetic values into them, we are called erratic.

If we don't we do not know how to teach.

If we drill in grammar, "boring" is the word they use.

If we don't we do not teach it thoroughly enough.

If we let our hair down in the classroom, we are not acting like a teacher should.

If we don't, we are hard, dry, and almost inhuman.

When we look up a word in the dictionary, we should not—for—we should know all the words, and every meaning also.

We ask Johnny to recite, but he just forgot—that very minute.

We ask for a short story and the next day, the answer—"I wasn't in a mood to create."

When we don't smile, "Why

— Delta News —

Recently, the Deltas joined together wholeheartedly in observing Founders' Day by worshipping at the Haymount Presbyterian Church located in the city. Later we dined in the H. L. Cook Dining Hall.

The Annual Jabberwock was held February 8, 1957, in the J. W. Seabrook Auditorium. The theme of the Jabberwock was "Holidays Around the Clock." Attractive Alice Hines reigned as Jabberwock Queen. Our chapter, Delta XI, appeared on stage with the first number entitled "Sleigh Bells." The attire was red leotards, red and white toboggans, black shoes, and bells.

First prize was won by the Sampson County Training School, Clinton, N. C. Their number was don't you smile some time?"

If we do—"What are you smiling at?"

We try, we try—we have studied for years, but that teenager is far smarter than we.

We repeat: "Getting to be a well-liked teacher is no easy matter. You give the answer."

a dance entitled "Stars and Stripes Forever" representing July 4, Independence Day. They were attired in red, white and blue. We extend congratulations to them.

Other participants in the Jabberwock included Beta Chi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, E. E. Smith High School, Newbold Training School, Swans Club, Pleasant Grove School, North Street Elementary School, The Links, and various other individuals. We wish to thank each of you for your effort to help carry this program out successfully.

Congratulations are in order to Soror Etheleen Wallace who has completed all requirements for graduation and is now substituting at Armstrong School. Good luck Soror Wallace. Even though we lost Soror Wallace, we are happy to welcome back two of our old members whom we have truly missed. They are Sorors Betsy C. Foster and Julia Kelly.

Delta Xi is now making plans for the Annual "Kampus Kapers," another entertaining affair for your enjoyment.