of liberality, five of kindness, four of rest (leaving this out is like leaving the oil out of the salad—don't do it), three parts of prayer, two of meditation, and one well-selected resolution. Then put in about a teaspoonful of good spirits, a dash of fun, a pinch of folly, a jigger of laughter, a sprinkling of play, and a heaping cupful of good humor.

Cook thoroughly in a fervent heat, garnish with a few smiles and a sprig of joy, then serve with quietness, unselfishness, and cheerfulness, and a Happy Year is a certainty!—ENID DAY, in a holiday radio program.

F.S.T.C. Thrills Homecoming Crowd With 14-6 Win

Virgil Franklin

The Broncos satisfied a capacity homecoming crowd with a 14-6 upset over J. C. Smith's Bulls at our Smith Athletic Field.

The Broncos rang down the curtain on the 1959 grid season with Robert Gordon scoring the first touchdown on a quick opening smash play. The try for the extra point was stopped. The second touchdown was a jumped pass from James Ebron to Gordon in the end zone. Ebron then threw a direct hit to Virgil Franklin for the extra two points.

Special mention should be given to the outstanding play, both offensively and defensively, of such players as Alphonzo Morehead, Charles Johnson, Thomas Rawley, Robert Gordon, James Ebron, Jude Wright, Fred Rodgers, Jack Thompson and Luther McKeithan. Next year, the Bronco football team will be hurt by graduation of many players, but the hopes of the remaining players are high.

The Broncos were piloted by Coach Herbert Doub, a native of Pennsylvania, and Coach Page Saunders of Bluefield, W. Va. With the ideas and plans these men possess, the coming football season should be a most successful one.

Sportsmanship In Basketball Games

A baby isn't born with the attributes of sportsmanship — far from it. He is interested only in himself; he wants to take but never give. Sportsmanship, on the other hand, requires that a good sportsman give as well as take.

Sportsmanship is really the Golden Rule applied to the basketball court. We should always treat our visitors, both players and spectators, as we would like to be treated when we visit them. We should always remember that treating visitors fairly will insure like treatment for our team and rooters when we are playing on their floor. Let's be good hosts and have people say, "Not only has FSTC the best gym around but the best crowd too!" The little things like keeping quite during free throws and not "riding" the officials will be remembered by many after the final score is forgotten.

Many times during the stress of hard-fought games we tend to forget what sport is and let our emotions get out of hand. Let's all abide by Walter Turnbull's poem . . .

LEARNED AT THE LISTENING POST

Sport is winning if you can
And keeping to the Sportsman's code.
Sport is beating the other man,
But giving him half the road.
Being content with an even break,
Scorning the trickster's art.
Sport is the game for the game's own sake,
And the love of a fighting heart.

Gymnasium Blues

These are the wails I hear in class
Every day from a lad or lass:
I can't be in gym this hour,
I have a cold and can't take a shower,
Someone has stolen my gym shoes,
I never get back the things I lose.
I've lost my shorts, I've lost a sock—
My combination won't work my lock.
I forgot my suit when to school I came,
May I be excused from "gym" today,
I left my shirt at the Y.M.C.A.
May I do this, or that, or so?
And a hundred to one the answer is "No!"
Anon.

RESTRICTION OF THE WEEK.

In Detroit, a sign on the cigarette machine in Wayne State University's student center lobby read: "Freshmen are forbidden to buy thinking men's cigarettes before they have taken semester exams."

"Dearest Mother. I miss you very much. Do you suppose you could send me a small sum of cash since I am short of funds?"

"Dear Son, so happy to receive your NOTE and KNOW that you are NOT sick or anything. NOTHING is happening around here. At least NOTHING of any NOTeworthy interest or anything I KNOW of. Write mother aNOTHER letter soon."
