

Beta Kappa Chi Honor Roll Chartered

Beta Kappa Chi, the newly organized national scientific honorary society on our campus, is anticipating a successful year.

F. S. C. was fortunate to receive a charter for its chapter of Beta Kappa Chi last year. The FSC chapter was initiated with the induction of three mathematics majors and two biology majors by Drs. Joseph L. Knuckles and Henry M. Eldridge. The first student members of our chapter are Willis McLeod, senior from Dunn; Robert Melvin, junior from Fayetteville; Minnie Stevens, junior from Goldsboro; Mildred Haywood and Joseph J. Johnson, both seniors of Fayetteville. The former three students are mathematics majors and the latter two are biology majors.

Beta Kappa Chi was founded in 1923 by men who held that the primary function of the society should be "to encourage and advance scientific education through original investigation, the dissemination of scientific knowledge, and the stimulation of high scholarship in pure and applied science." This aim still is as important as it was when Beta Kappa Chi was founded.

In keeping with our primary aim — to encourage high scholarship, Beta Kappa Chi considers for membership only persons who have high academic averages. In order for a person to be eligible, he must have completed at least sixty-four semester hours of college work, seventeen of which must be in one of the sciences, in which he has a grade average of at least B and a cumulative average of at least B.

The society is looking forward to having a large number of students eligible to be considered for membership.

Look! More Talent

dramatizing. We had such vocalists as Miss Bernice Glaspie, who sang "Gee Whiz," and Miss Gloria Benefield who sang "You'll Never Walk Alone." There were such models as Misses Johnnie Maynor and Martha Sanders, who modeled formal evening wear. There were such dramatists as Misses Barbara Jackson and Oprea Williams. Mr. Lester Campbell really fascinated the crowd with his rendition of "Moonlight Sonata." Throughout the program, the audience showed both appreciation and enthusiasm.

The spirit of the event was really climaxed, when the freshmen presented $198.00 to the Student Emergency Loan Fund — proceeds from the evening's entertainment.

B Sharp With The Choir

The Fayetteville State College Choir has begun the academic year, 1963-64, with a great sforzato! Even though the choir greatly laments the parting of approximately twenty seniors, it still looks forward to a prosperous year. And why not? With thirty-five new and eager voices comprised mostly of freshmen, how could the outlook be dim?

Music is the universal language and the choir has as one of its goals to entertain its audiences around the world in song. There will be renditions that tell of olden times in far away places and songs that tell of modern times in your locale.

It is a remarkable experience to romp through the world of music. Two young ladies, both seniors, elementary education majors, and altos of the choir, have brought distinction not only to themselves and their families but also honors to the choir. They are Gloria Crawford and Rosetta Rivers, who were chosen Miss Fayetteville State College and Miss Homecoming, respectively. Incidentally, this is their fourth year in the choir.

To help the choir achieve its utmost in musical stature, there is Mrs. M. T. Eldridge, directress. Also to assist her and aid the choir to function at its best, the following officers were chosen:

- President ..... Jack Sharpe
  - Vice President .. Joseph Butler
  - Secretary ..... Mamie White
  - Treasurer ..... Edna Melvin
  - Pianist ..... Shirley Arnold
- The choir members can visualize a melodious pathway to the sphere of sound. Won't you join?

In order to clarify the meaning of words used in an announcement about a school carnival, the teacher asked her third-graders if they knew what the word "bazaar" meant.

After a long silence, one youngster raised his hand and replied hesitantly, "I don't know for sure, but I think it's part of a lady's underwear."

A little boy was asked by his teacher if he felt there was anything he could do better than anyone else.

"Yessum," he replied after some reflection. "Read my own handwriting."

A teacher found he had three students named Smith — Albert, Alvin and Frank — in the same class. To identify them better, he sent them to the blackboard in alphabetical order, asking that each write his name. They did. Albert wrote: A. Smth. Alvin wrote ANOTHER Smith. Frank wrote THE Smith.

From The World Of Drama

As we begin a new academic year, we here in the world of drama, wish to extend to all the freshmen and other new members of the college family, a sincere welcome to our institution.

The Drama Guild of the College held its first meeting recently and drew up the plans for the 1963-64 Drama Calendar of Events. This is the proposed schedule:
October 1, 2, 3, 1963 — Casting of Fall Production
October 26—Homecoming (Parade)
November (early)—Freshman Play
November 14 — Fall Production
December and January — Play Exchanges with other Colleges
January 14, 15, 1964 — Casting of Spring Production (Shakespearean Play)
February (The First Saturday) —

Drama Clinic of N.C.H.S.D.A. March (Fine Arts Week) — Spring Production
April — N.A.D.S.A. Conference
April or May — Report N.A.D.S.A. Conference
May — Nomination of Officers for 1964-65
May — Election of Officers
May — Joint Meeting of Both Cabinets
May — Final Meeting of Drama Guild

PURLIE VICTORIOUS has been selected as the play for the Fall Production. This is a three act, gay satire concerning the present racial crisis in the United States. It takes place in the cotton plantation country of the Old South "in the recent past." The cast of the play includes:

- Purlie Victorious Judson — Benjamin Beaufort
- Lutiebell Gussie Mae Jenkins — Ollie Thompson - Hattie Pope - Arlene McIntyre
- Missy Judson — Barbara Jackson
- Edna Morrison
- Gitelow Judson — Aaron King - Thurman Chappell
- Charlie Cotchipee — Charles Fryar
- Idella Landy — Mary Manning - Barbara Mosley
- Ol' Cap'n Cotchipee — Andy Arington - Felton Keyes
- The Sheriff — Byron Thomas
- The Deputy — Dennis Sanders

The author of the play, Ossie Davis, and his wife, Ruby Dee were guests on our campus in 1956 when he was guest speaker at the Annual Meeting of the Intercollegiate Drama Association. Other colleges belonging to this association include Howard, Shaw, Lincoln (Penna.), Johnson C. Smith Universities, Morgan, West Virginia, South Carolina, Virginia, Elizabeth City, Winston-Salem, Central, and Kentucky State Colleges, N. C. College at Durham, A&T College, St Paul's College, Wilberforce of Ohio, and Lincoln University of Missouri.

At the time of Mr. Davis's appearance here, he had not blossomed as a playwright. His first play, Purlie Victorious, was presented on Broadway for several months and has received some very favorable reviews. It was so well received by the public that it has been purchased by a movie industry and will appear this fall as a movie under the caption of "Gone Are the Days."

The F.S.C. Drama Guild has been invited to participate in productions in cooperation with the Fort Bragg Players under the direction of Mr. Gilbert Ross, Entertainment Director of Fort Bragg. This experience should greatly increase the acting ability and the productions given by the Drama Guild.

Another activity of the Drama Guild, The Freshman Production, promises to be very entertaining and interesting. The title of the play is "Concert in the Park."
This year the members of the Drama Guild, along with their advisor, Miss L. P. Turner, are proud to have on the Dramatic Committee Miss W. Johnson, Mrs. E. Newsome, and Mr. D. Goodwin of the Department of English, and Miss H. Goff of the Department of Foreign Language.

The officers for the Drama Guild this year are as follows:

- President, Aaron King; Vice-President, Vivian Brightharp; Recording Secretary, Jean Lisa Gerald; Corresponding Secretary, Maggie Hawes; Treasurer, Alvin McKoy; N.A.D.S.A. Representative, Ellen Johnson; High School Representative, Voncil Dixon; Reporter, Charles Fryer.

This brings our news to a close and includes all the big events planned for your entertainment from the world of drama. The members of the Drama Guild hope you will enjoy the productions as much as they anticipate enjoying producing them.

The Big Sound

Is it a drill team? Is it a parade? No, it's the "Bronco Band!" Here they come now with those flashy uniforms and high-stepping majorettes — up to the ten-yard line, the twenty, the thirty — executing precision movements that cause the eyes of every fan in the stands to be glued in one steadfast direction. At the same time, each individual instrument, owning a specific size, shape, and range, is producing a unique sound which when combined with the numerous other musical tones being simultaneously formed composes a matchless musical production that causes each eardrum to vibrate in rhythm with the beating of the restless hearts. It is "The Big Sound" of the "Bronco Marching Band!"

In a concentrated effort to continue their display of musicianship and showmanship, the members of the band have chosen the following officers:

- President ..... William Westfield
- Secretary ..... Mary Johnson
- Assistant Secretary .. Elaine Ray
- Treasurer ..... Fred Byrd
- Student Government Representatives .. Jack Sharpe, Jeremiah Wooten

Reporter ..... Joseph J. Johnson
Sergeant at Arms .. Charles Bennett

Along with halftime performances at Bronco games, the Bronco Band has given a Performance at the beautiful Hedrick Stadium at Fort Bragg. The band members are eagerly looking forward to other trips that will help broaden their musical background.

At present the Bronco Band is busily preparing for the remainder of the football season. We have high hopes of keeping "The Big Sound" coming your way.

Reporter, Joseph J. Johnson
Director, Mr. Thomas B. Bacote

Day Student Organization

The Day Students began the new school term by electing officers for the year 1963-1964. The president, James Stackhouse, assistant secretary, Allen Davis, and assistant treasurer, Willella Alexander, are all freshmen. The others elected were Marlyn Walker, vice-president; Charles Squalls, treasurer; and Mary Polman, secretary. These are the officials of the Day Student Organization, and even with a freshman president, we are expecting a promising year.

This organization is larger than ever. We foresee a successful year if we have maximum cooperation.

James Stackhouse, Reporter
