F. S. C. FIVE AT U. N. C.

By BETTY COOPER

An exchange program between the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, Chapel Hill, N. C., and Fayetteville State College has enabled five juniors from Fayetteville State College to attend the University this semester as exchange students. These students are (1) Bobby Ray Holmes, (2) Gladys James, (3) Janice Lee, (4) Lois Steadman, and (5) Elaine Walker.

Bobby is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Herbert Holmes of Smithfield, N. C. He graduated from Johnson Central High School, Smithfield, N. C., in May, 1965.

Gladys is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. George M. James of Maple Hill, N. C. She is a graduate of C. F. Pope High School, Burgaw, N. C. Gladys is majoring in elementary education.

Janice is the daughter of Sgt. & Mrs. Bruce Justice of Fayetteville, N. C. She graduated from E. E. Smith Senior High School, Fayetteville, N. C., in May, 1965. She is also majoring in elementary education.

Lois, also a graduate of E. E. Smith of Fayetteville, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stedman of this city. Lois is majoring in biology.

Elaine, a sociology major, is the daughter of the late Mr. William Walker and Mrs. Odessa Walker Thompkins. She is a graduate of Charles E. Perry High School. Elaine is a native of Roseboro, N. C.

These students, we believe, will make a favorable showing at UNC. We are very proud of them.

INTERVIEW

MON. ARNOLD HERARD
By CLIFTON MERVIN

I. What was your first impression of N. C.?

My first contact with the people and the community in and around Fayetteville reminded me of my native land. In Haiti we have wooden structures, brick structures, the same as here. The flora is very similar, apparently. The folk dress, the features are the same. In other words, I feel, in proportion to likenesses, pretty much at home. I have found the people friendly and willing to lend a helping hand.

However, I have only been here for one month and have not had the opportunity to learn a great deal about Fayetteville and North Carolina. I think I am going to like it here very much.

II. Do you find that the students here in N. C. differ from those elsewhere?

No! The students at Fayetteville State College are no different than those of other places. I can say from my short experience here, I find them very conscientious.

III. Where did you do your undergraduate and graduate study?

I did my undergraduate and graduate study in Haiti. I also spent two years in France studying Law. I have a B.A. in Romance Languages and Greek from the Ecole Normale Supérieure and a "Licence en droit" from the Faculty of Law and twenty four hours in Romance Language toward the Ph.D. at Fordham University.

It may be interesting to know something about the educational system in Haiti. As you know, Haiti is a former French colony. After the independence, in 1804, (Haiti was the second Republic in America), we have preserved the language and the French ways and customs.

Our educational system is the same as in France: The Primary School (6 years). You have your "Certificate d' Etudes Primaires;" The primary and superior school (3 years) for your "Brevet Elementaire et superieur"

15 FSC STUDENTS IN WHO'S WHO

By VERITA BROWN

Dean J. C. Jones informed The Voice that fifteen FSC students have been approved by the National Office for Membership in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

The students are: Margaret Alice Blackstock, Bobby Ray Holmes, Gladys Lee James, Janice Lucille Lee, Leonza Loftin, Veronica Gail Lucas, Charles Ray Moore, Delores Purdie, Lois Vivian Steadman, Cora Ann Ray, Shirley Annette Streater, Elaine Walker, Lenora Lee Wilson, Georgetta Jordan Baker, and Jacquelyn Vandalia Whitfield.

These students will be contacted by Mr. H. Pettus Randall, Editor of "Who's Who" to secure information for publication in the current book. The students will receive certificates that will be on hand for presentation on some appropriate occasion during the year or at graduation.

Humanities (letters or Science) (6 years) for your (Baccalaureat Iere and Zere Partie), and then you go to The University, that includes the following Faculties: Faculty of Law, Faculty of Science, Faculty of Medicine, Faculty of Agronomy, Ecole Normale Supérieure, Ecole Supérieure d'Administration.

In Haiti, the instruction is gratuitous to all levels. There are many private schools. They have a license to operate. The Department of Education reserves the power to grant all certificates after official examination.

IV. Did you have to make any adjustments to the students and to the Faculty?

There were no adjustments that I had to make as a member of the faculty, but in my classes I find that the students who have had two years of French do better work than those beginning. I want to help students interested in bringing their work up to the level of the class.

V. Do you feel that the students at Fayetteville State are as well learned as students elsewhere?

Of course, I can not say that the students here are not as students elsewhere. I have only one phase of their education, but I can say as before, I have never come in contact with more conscientious and better disciplined students.

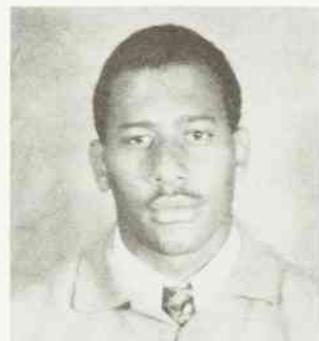

Well, Mon cher Clifton, I am very happy to welcome you in my office and I hope that I have answered your questions fully. I would like to extend my compliment to the Staff and reporters of The Voice. Your News has an important part in the academic life of F.S.C. Toujours du succes' et de la Tenue. Thank you.

MRS. ANN SHEPHARD
DEAN OF WOMEN

All FSC students should know Dean Ann Shephard who has served as Dean of Women for the past six years. She did her undergraduate and graduate studies at New York University; she has also done further study at Catholic University of America.

Dean Shephard feels that her most important responsibility is, "To concern myself with all matters relating to female students." The November issue of THE VOICE will feature the dormitory directors who are members of Dean Shephard's staff.

ADONIS MILES
CORBETT AWARD TO MILES

Adonis Lee Miles is this year's recipient of the James J. Corbett Award, available to men of the sophomore, junior and senior classes. The award covers State tuition plus $200 cash, payable in two equal installments at registration in September and in February.

Mr. Miles is a twenty-one year old senior from Jacksonville, Florida. He is a non-teaching major in sociology, who holds plans for working in The Labor Department after graduation.

Mr. Miles is a member of the Social Science Club and Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Epsilon Zeta Chapter. He has been active in football and Tennis.

Application blanks for the James J. Corbett award are available in the Dean's Office. The deadline is May 31, 1968.

BEAUTY FOR BEAUTIFICATION

By BERNICE LEWIS

F.S.C. students above represent The Student Government's campaign to help beautify the campus. The idea, originated by Student Government leaders, headed by President Booker Keyes, is expected to gain momentum through total student involvement. "Project Beautification," as it is called, has been planned in such a manner that each student, on and off campus, can be expected to lend some of his time and vigor toward making FSC's campus a more beautiful one.

Lending a hand for the cause are six loyal students seen in photo above. The Coeds, Carrie Johnson, Brenda Wilder and Vedas Thomas El, add beauty as they work for beauty's sake. Vance Sutphin, Craig Torrey and Fred Hill provide brawn in the effort. The Student Government will keep the populace informed of steps in the process and it will let students know what part they can play and when.

Cora Ray To Reign As "Miss Homecoming 1967-68"

By WILLIAM FLAKE

Miss Cora Ann Ray, a junior from Raleigh, North Carolina, will reign as the 1967-1968 Homecoming Queen. Miss Ray is a 1965 graduate of Berry O'Kelly High School in Raleigh, North Carolina. At Fayetteville State, she is a mathematics major who has been named to the Dean's List every semester since her enrollment. "Who's Who" named Miss Ray to its 1967-68 roster in a recent listing. She is also an active member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and several other campus organizations.

When asked how she felt about her new position, the lovely, radiant, poised Miss Ray commented, "I think that being able to reign as Miss Homecoming is a momentous experience for any coed. When you know that everybody in your college family will be together for a particular event, it is exciting enough, but when you are a part of all this, the effect is overwhelming."

Miss Ray will be crowned at the Coronation Ball on Friday, November 10, 1967, in the Lilly Gymnasium.

Other homecoming activities include the Miss Alumni Ball on Friday, November 10, 1967, at which "Miss Alumni" will be crowned.

On Saturday, November 11, 1967, the Homecoming Parade, which is expected to be very colorful this year, will precede the Homecoming Game which will be played at 2:00 p.m. at the college athletic field. The Broncos will play host to Johnson C. Smith University's "Golden Bull Brigade."

There will be a Homecoming Dance on Saturday night at 9:00 p.m. in the Lily Gymnasium to conclude the homecoming activities.
