

Above pixs show excited enthusiasm that permeated Bronco homecoming. At the left "Miss Homecoming," Jackie Rendleman's float, catches all eyes during the parade. Center photo shows opposing captains at the toss before the game got underway. At the right President Rudolph Jones busses "Miss ECSC" during the half time ceremonies. Larry Ray is the yielding escort.

THE VOICE

FAYETTEVILLE STATE COLLEGE

VOL. 22 NO. 3

Fayetteville, N. C.

NOVEMBER 15, 1968

WEBER LEGISLATIVE NOMINEE

By LOU BAKER

Colonel Frederick R. Weber, Mayor of Lumber Bridge from 1960 to 1963, is a nominee for one of the four seats in the House of Representatives of the North Carolina State Legislature for the 24th District including all of Robeson, Hoke and Scotland Counties. He asks for the vote and support of the residents of this area again.

Colonel Weber chose North Carolina as the future home for his family when he came to Fort Bragg as Garrison Commander twelve years ago from Japan, and bought the Tolar home in Lumber Bridge. Now he is the Director of Guidance at Pembroke State College, while Mrs. Weber is the Coordinator of the Programmed Learning Laboratory at Fayetteville State College. Together the Weber's received their Master of Arts Degrees from East Carolina University in 1965. Phi Delta Kappa, national graduate honorary fraternity initiated him into membership in 1964. Both are pilots of their single engine plane. The Webers taught at Vardell Hall in Red Springs in 1964-66. He is working on his doctorate at UNC.

Colonel Weber served on the county Industrial and Agricultural Commission in 1964-66 which was interested in bringing in new industries. He was President of the Fayetteville Athletic Officials Association which provides judges and referees for football, baseball and basketball to high schools in the counties.

Before entering politics, Col. Weber commanded five infantry regiments, served as military advisor to the Republics of the Philippines and Korea, commanded units of the Special Forces in Europe from Paris after ranking one in his Special Forces class at Fort Bragg, and was the last Army commander at Sasebo, Japan. At West Point he was executive officer of the 1802nd Regiment which demonstrates military tactics to the cadets of the United States Military Academy, where he was graduated in 1930.

ing, Fencing dueling swords, and the Fencing team in 1936 in Berlin. He was captain and manager of the Modern Pentathlon in the London Olympic Games in 1948. Winning two gold medals, he competed as captain of Fencing in the first Pan - American games in Buenos Aires in 1951. Again in 1964 he was captain of the Modern Pentathlon and C.I.S.M. Fencing Team winning in Vienna, Austria. The New York Athletic Club had him on its rolls as an athletic member for twenty-five years when he became a military member.

The nominee feels that continued service to his country and community is of the utmost importance at this time. He will try to implement the will of the people when he is sent to the House of Representatives.

FSC Grads With S. S. Administration

Fayetteville - Six Fayetteville State College graduates are among more than two-hundred Social Insurance Representatives hired by the Atlanta Region of the Social Security Administration, President Rudolph Jones announced today.

During the past Spring the Atlanta Region of the Social Security Administration conducted a large-scale recruitment among college seniors and graduates for the position.

Fayetteville State graduates now with the agency include Mesdames A. B. Tatum, A. W. McLean and Geraldine Henderson; Misses Carolyn Council, Betty L. Cooper and Willie M. Lewis.

According to J. C. Jones, FSC coordinator of placement, more than 16% of the 1968 graduating class gained employment in government and industry. FSC had 124 graduates last year and the college is primarily a teacher-education college offering non-teaching majors in biology, mathematics and sociology.

Social Insurance Representatives begin at the trainee level of GS-5 or GS-7, depending on qualifications, with a salary of $5,732 or $6,981. The journeyman GS-9 level with a beginning salary of $8,462 is reached after eighteen months.

In commenting on the appointments, Dr. Rudolph Jones said, "The college is always delighted to learn about the success of its graduates. We are particularly gratified that they were selected on their merit."

BETTY COOPER NAMED

Betty Cooper, a native of Wade, N.C., has been appointed to the position of Claims representative trainee in the Miami, Florida Social Security District office according to an announcement by Mr. W. W. Thomas manager of the Fayetteville, N. C. Social Security District office. She received her BS degree from Fayetteville State College in 1968. Betty has recently completed a 13-week period of intensive training in the Knoxville, Tennessee Social Security training center where she received instructions on the laws and regulations dealing with the Social Security Program.

NCTA HUDDLES AT FSC

Fayetteville State College hosted the 32nd Annual Meeting of the South-eastern District of the North Carolina Teachers Association (NCTA) Friday, October 11.

"A Time for Educational Statesmanship" was the general theme of the one-day meeting. Mrs. Mary Scott, NEA Director, Dushane Defense Fund, was the keynote speaker at the General Session in Seabrook Auditorium.

Others appearing at the general session were FSC President Rudolph Jones, Mrs. Ruth B. Jones, President, North Carolina Teachers Association; and E. B. Palmer, Executive Secretary NCTA.

"Responsibility to Act" was the subject of a panel for the Association of Classroom Teachers held in Seabrook Auditorium. Panelists included Mrs. Edna C. Richards, Executive Secretary, North Carolina Association of Classroom Teachers (NC ACT); Miss Mary E. Venable, President, NCACT; Mrs. Mae Sue Henry, President-elect, NCACT; Mrs. R. B. Jones and E. B. Palmer.)

Time Out For Chatter

Dr. Rudolph Jones catches a bit of the pulse of the campus as he chats with left to right, Booby Wright, Rebecca Alford, Annie McCullough, "Miss FSC," and Sam Barnett.