WILLIAM BROWN

William Brown Gives Concert

On January 26, Fayetteville State University was visited by an outstanding tenor, William Brown.

Mr. Brown has appeared in five world and U.S. premieres. He was the first soloist to appear four times in one season with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

William Brown entered Jackson State College with a scholarship in trumpet, but soon changed to voice, in which major he graduated. His graduate studies were at Indiana University School of Music, which awarded him a Masters Degree in Voice. He has also worked towards his Doctorate at the Peabody Conservatory.

He delivered an outstanding concert which all of Fayetteville State will remember for many years to come.
