

ASK

By BARBARA HARRIS

Do you have any questions about things around campus? Then why not ASK them?

This semester the Voice staff is proud to introduce to the student body a new column called ASK. So if there is something you want to know--then just ask ASK. ASK cuts the red tape for you.

A box will be placed in the Canteen for your questions. Give the name and title of person you want an answer from.

For Coach Tom Reeves: How did you feel when you found out that the team was CIAA bound?

Answer: I was highly elated to be able to take the team to the tournament for the first time since 1958. We worked hard and it was quite an achievement.

For Clifton X, Student: What inspired you toward the Muslim faith?

Answer: Truth and explanation to a lot of unexplained life prophecies and the love and service for Black people.

For Robert A. Massey, Instructor: What are your views on the Black atmosphere on campus?

Answer: Basically Blacks should spend a little more time finding out what Black is. In my estimation many Blacks are taking the time to find out and hopefully more of their classmates will follow suite.

For Robert A. Massey, Instructor: What do you think of these Black professionals who choose while marriage mates?

Answer: It depends upon the nature of the professional. If he perceives the white mate as an individual and does not lose his identity then it could be a positive situation considering the fact that the latter of the two situations is less likely to occur. Then I would not condone it.

For Harold Riggins, student: What did you think of the Bronco's spirit at St. Aug. Saturday night, February 12?

Answer: It was alright--did not need the fighting.

For Richard Brown, student: Are you interested in becoming a Cheerleader? Why or why not?

Answer: Yes, I am. The ones we have now aren't capable of leading the crowd.

For Frederica Broadnax, student: Do you feel that all Black men should be judged for one Black man's mistake?

Answer: No. I want to feel that all Black men are different.

For Dean Armetha Robinson: Where do you buy all your "Mod clothes and shoes"?

Answers: Oh my gosh! Really I don't have a special place here in Fayetteville to buy them, usually they come from out of town.

TRYING

How Black is your Black?

As Black as I want it to be. What makes your blackness Black?

My value system and how I think. What's your value system all about?

How the hell do I know, I'm still trying to get my deep together

When you think its going to be ready?

Don't know man, its taken me three-hundred years so far. Aint you a little slow in finding out what you're all bout?

These things take time brother, they take time!!!

Carter, Hollins Preparing For Switch To Muslim Religion

By BRENDA JONES

Maurice Carter and Leta Hollins, two FSU students from Buffalo, N.Y., are in the process of acquiring their "X", or becoming a member of the Islamic faith. Their preparation for change began in the summer of 1971, and they are continuing their study that will enable them to become a member of the Muslim sect headed by the Honorable Elijah Muhammed.

According to Muslim belief that white man is the devil, therefore evil. The receiving the "X" also means that the surname, given by the white man through slavery can be dropped.

There are five basic principles that followers of the faith must practice: 1. The belief in one God and the profithood of Muhammed. 2. Two divisions of prayer, the Salat, which is the formal prayer, and the Dua, which is meditation. 3. Fasting, which cleanses the body from the eating of food. 4. Giving to the poor. 5. Pilgrimage to Mecca the Holy City.

"All blacks are Muslim by origin," Maurice stoutly maintains. This is part of the doctrine they are taught at the Temple. They are also taught about the Universe and various aspects of black culture.

Allah was creator of the Universe, they are taught, and that Heaven is twelve conditions. These conditions are wisdom, knowledge, understanding, freedom, justice, equality, food, clothing, shelter, love, peace, and happiness.

When even one is out of proper working order, you are in Hell, a Muslim believes. "Therefore," says Maurice, "why can't heaven be right here on Earth; if we would put all of these conditions in proper working order, what more could you want?"

Starting Anew

MAURICE CARTER AND Leta Hollins go over material that will enable them to join the Nation of Islam.

Your Stars

Tomorrow

By PATRICIA MOSES

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19)- Concern focuses on how you appear to others now, with the need to make the very best impression uppermost in your mind. Don't step out of the dorm unless every hair is in place.

Taurus (Apr. 21-May 20)- It's your turn to be determined. Avoid detours to please others.

Gemini (May 21-June 21)- Loved ones can't understand how you can turn a cold shoulder to their problems but they forget that they never take your advice anyway.

Cancer (June 22-Jul. 22)- You can bend over backwards with some people, only to find that it isn't enough. The effect is better, if you really said what you think.

Leo (Jul. 23-Aug. 22)--- You seem to have spring fever two months ahead of everybody else this year. Pleasures are luring you away from daily duties.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)-- You won't get your fair share by sitting back and hoping for the best. Be aggressive.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)--- The main issue dividing you and closest partner stems from your insistence on maintaining appearances. Mate couldn't care less what others think and neither should you.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)- Don't launch into any big speeches unless you're positive you've gotten every fact straight and your reasoning is flawless. Better yet, why don't you just keep quiet?

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)--Friendships are strained by any foolish or reckless ideas you insist on exploring. Listen closely to one who has a practical outlook. You're on thin ice.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) What you say to loved ones stands as your final statement on mutual matters. Where heart interests have been awaiting an encore, you bring down the curtain.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Personal decisions that involve an element of sacrifice and commitment are high lighted. No need to broadcast your intentions to the world, it's just between you and your conscience.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20)-- Having a blow-up with mate could be the best thing that ever happened, at least from your point of view.

27 Business Seniors Do Internship

During the current semester 27 seniors of the Department of Business Education and Administration are engaged in internship experiences in offices and business in the Fayetteville area. Through this program students are receiving practical and meaningful experiences relating to their special areas of interest.

Students have been assigned to administrative offices of the University as well as to local businesses and industries, including Kelly Springfield Tire Company, North Carolina National Bank, City Manager's Office, and the Fort Bragg Educational Center. Interns are also serving at Haymore Style Shop, Action Shop, H. & R. Block, Inc., and Arnette the Tailor.

Periodically students return to the campus for seminars to discuss issues and problems relating to their experiences. Several of the businesses have offered future positions to the interns upon completion of their studies at Fayetteville State University.
