I Am The New Black Women

By Odessia

I am the new Black woman
I am strong bold and beautiful

I am the new Black woman
Look on me and see life giving energy in my eyes

I am the new Black woman
Listen
hear me
talk about love beauty pain struggle All in the same breath

I am the new Black woman
I was alpha and so shall I be omega
I am the new Black woman
take my hand
Black man look down on me and I will look up to you So Be It
We shall walk as one

Beautified By Nature

By EDWARD L. WILFONG

She stands alone with her surroundings and dares to be different in color, speech, dress, and all other aspects of day to day living. The Black woman - the best woman.

The sister of today must come to realize that if she wants to be respected she must first respect herself. As one looks around campus you will realize the neckedness of many of our black and beautiful sisters. As the little child wishes not to have a toy that is used, no man wishes to have a used woman.

By nature man is attracted to a woman and a woman to a man. In light of this a woman must realize the less that she wears the more attraction a man will have for her. But she must ask herself this question what is he attracted to. It is a known fact that what a woman will trap a man with may be what she will lose him with. In a meeting of the two sexes should there not be a mental understanding before there is a physical one.

You Black woman who is beautiful by nature must come to realize that you do not need make up and other articles to hide your natural beauty. Lipstick was not made for your already many colored lips.

You stand alone with your surroundings and you are different in many ways as color, speech, dress, love, and dreams...A BLACK WOMAN beautiful by nature.

The Situation

By William Stevenson

We, the Black people sometimes feel there is nothing we can do about the situation we are in. We might sometimes ask ourselves if our situation is not largely caused by our own attitudes. I sometimes ask myself those questions about the situation I am in and most of them are caused by my own attitude.

The reason is that, if you take the average Blackman today, he would not stand up to anyone; that has an attitude of some sort. He would either walk away, or start a commotion of violence, there again as I say is a feeling and situation caused by your own attitude.
