

BRONCOS STAND 2 - 0, DEFENSE SHINES

With only two games played, the Fayetteville State University Bronco football have started on the "good foot".

Coach Raymond McDougal's defense has held opponents to a total of eight points in two outings while racking up a total of 37 points offensively.

Another bright spot is the kicking and punting departments. Johnny Highsmith, a wide-receiver who does PATs and field goal duties as well, has a .1000 kicking average after two games.

The Jacksonville, Florida senior has not missed an attempted field goal or point after touchdown. Kicking with amazing accuracy, the Floridian has converted four straight PATs and kicked three field goals for a total of 13 points.

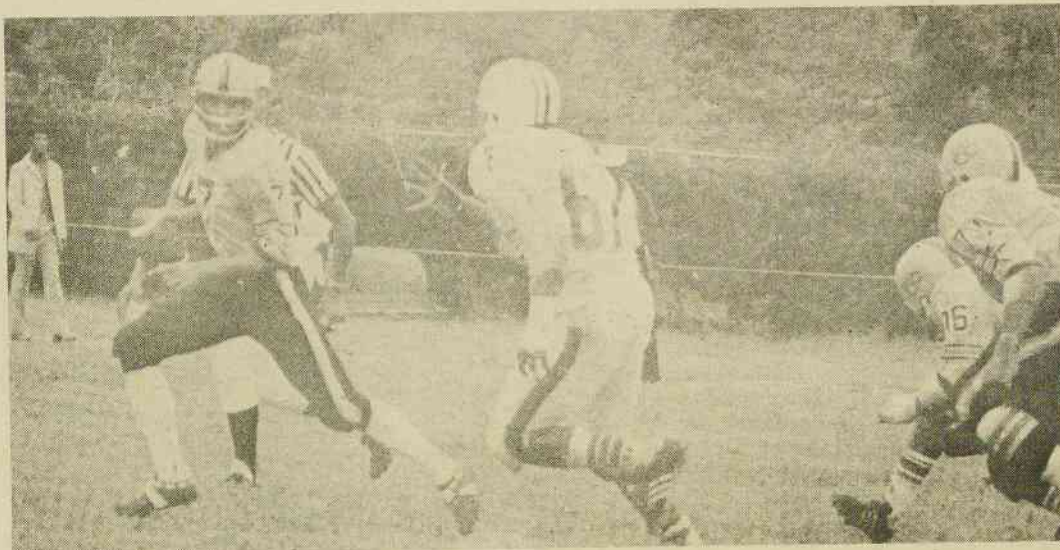

John Mitchell, FSU punter, has punted five times for a total of 194 yards and a 38.8 yard average.

Senior defensive linebacker Arnold Johnson has 17 assists in the tackling department while teammate Armond Wrenn, linebacker, has 14 to his credit.

The Broncos will receive their first CIAA test September 21 at Norfolk State College. Ray McDougal's squad will be trying to revenge their loss at home last year when the Spartans came-from-behind for the victory.

Norfolk State will have a new coach in Dick Price, but he will have practically the same cast which defeated the Broncos last year.

Leading the Broncos offensively is running back James Godwin who has amassed a total of 178 yards on the ground in two games. He's followed by running mate Glenn McKoy with 129 yards. Godwin is averaging 6.7 yards per carry and McKoy 5.1 per carry.
