

HELEN OLIVER "MISS VETERAN" 1974-75

MISS VETERAN at Fayetteville State University is "BLACK, BEAUTIFUL AND BRAINY". This lovely FSU sophomore coed is Helen Oliver of Fayetteville, N.C. and she was chosen by the Veteran's Club on the FSU campus as their queen for 1974-75. Helen is an early childhood education major and wants to teach when she finishes FSU.

A NIGHT AT "MISS VETERAN'S BALL"

by Doris Daniels

The event of the Veteran's Ball was most fascinating and atmospheric. The Ballroom was decorated with stars hanging from the ceiling of the dance floor.

Dinner was served buffet style. The menu consisted of country fried chicken, spiced Ham, a choice of green beans or creamed corn, potatoes with gravy, rolls and coffee to drink.

Music was provided by the Emperors who played appropriate dinner music.

The presentation of Miss Veteran, Helen Oliver was given by the President. She was beautifully robed in a royal blue halter type gown highlighted with white. Miss Oliver was crowned by Tyrone Williams. After being crowned Miss Oliver thanked everyone and hoped that the ball would be enjoyable for all. Expressing her feelings toward being Miss Veteran, Miss Oliver said she was happy but nervous.

The former Miss Veteran, Miss Mildred Moore was recognized.

Dinner was completed and the tone of music changed for dancing.

The ball was thoroughly enjoyed by all and I am sure everyone is looking forward to the Veteran's Ball next year.

JOIN
THE VOICE
STAFF
TODAY!!!

Broncos

Look

Good

All Photos by John B. Henderson

OLD AND NEW QUEENS--Miss Veteran of 1974, Helen Oliver, right, is presented a bouquet of carnations by FSU Veteran's Club President, Monroee Clay. Miss Mildred Moore, last year's queen looks on. (FSU Photo by John B. Henderson)

The crowd arrives at the main NCO Club, Fort Bragg, for the "Miss Veteran's" Ball Affair.