Seven Faculty Members Join FSU

Seven new faculty members have joined the Fayetteville State University faculty beginning the second semester 1974-75.

The announcement was made by Chancellor Charles "A" Lyons, Jr.

The faculty members are Roberta M. Waddle, biological and physical sciences department; Corrine Koujournis, department of health, physical education and recreation; Dr. James M. Boyte, department of mathematics; Carl Milton, counselor; Valerie Edmundson, history and political science department; Brenda Hoke, sociology department; and Sgt. Julius C. Brackeen, Jr., Air Force ROTC Program.

Roberta M. Waddle is a native of Missouri and received the B. S. degree from Northeast Missouri State University and the Master's degree from Iowa State University.

Corrine Koujournis is a recipient of the undergraduate degree in music from Florida State University and the Master's degree in Music from the same institution. She is a native of Miami, Florida.

Dr. James Boyte, a native of Moore County, North Carolina, received his undergraduate training at Appalachian State University, Boone, North Carolina. He received the M. A. degree at Appalachian State and the Ph. D. degree from Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Milton is a native of Newark, New Jersey and received the B. A. degree from the Kentucky State College and earned the Master's degree at North Carolina Central University, Durham, North Carolina.

Brenda Hoke, a native of Gastonia, North Carolina received the B. A. degree at North Carolina Central University and the M. A. degree at Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia.

Sgt. Julius C. Brackeen, Jr., a native of Muskogee, Oklahoma, is a veteran of 16 years in the Air Force and has served overseas tours of duty in Japan and Thailand. His U. S. tours include Lackland AFB, Texas; Forbes AFB, Kansas; Edwards AFB, California; Seymour Johnson AFB, North Carolina; Dover AFB, Delaware; and the Air Force Office of Scientific Research, Arlington, Virginia.

SEEING DOUBLE? You bet you are. The two lovely Fayetteville State University Broncos are identical twin sisters Linda and Brenda Gavin. They are natives of Lumberton, N.C., and are freshman Business Education majors. The girls said they made "identical" grades for the first semester.
