

FALL TO ELIZ. CITY, 6-0 BRONCOS WIN FOUR STRAIGHT GAMES

FSU 26, St. Paul's, 9

Fayetteville State University rolled over the St. Paul's College Tigers 26-9, for its third straight win in a CIAA battle here Saturday afternoon. The win gives the Broncos a 4-1 overall mark and stand 2-1 in the league. The visiting Tigers are 0-2 in the CIAA and are 1-4 overall.

The Tigers scored first in the second quarter on a seven-yard field goal and took a 3-0 lead to the dressing room at the half.

FSU taunted defense came to life in the third quarter when defensive end Dave Jones pounced on a loose Tiger oval in the end zone for a six-pointer. The PAT by FSU was missed but Ray McDougal's club never trailed the rest of the day.

All-American candidate fullback James Godwin, who collected 89 yards for the day, opened the fourth quarter scoring from two yards out. The PAT by James Williams gave the Broncos a 13-3 edge.

Fourth quarter scoring by FSU continued when senior halfback Tim Heath, who picked up 126 yards for the day, blazed around the sideline for a 48-yard scamper. The PAT by Williams put FSU ahead, 20-3.

The Tigers got on the scoreboard late in the fourth frame with a meaningless two yard TD plundage making the score 20-9.

The final Bronco tally came on a 28-yard pass-play combo from quarterback Carlos Bailey to flanker Wayne Blythwood with Williams booting the PAT for a 26-9 victory.

FSU hosts Winston-Salem State Saturday October 18, for the annual homecoming affair.

Fayetteville State celebrated homecoming before 10,000 happy fans by blanking Winston-Salem, 25-0, for its fourth straight win. The Broncos are 5-1 overall and 3-1 in the CIAA. The visiting Rams fell for the sixth time this season and stand 0-6 overall and 0-5 in the league.

Wayne Blythwood, voted "Most Outstanding Offensive Player", scored all three TDs for the winners. The West Palm Beach, Florida senior flanker was the recipient of TD tosses of 68, 18, and 54 yards. The glue-fingered speedster has grabbed twelve passes so far in the campaign with eight going for touchdowns.

Bronco quarterback Carlos Bailey connected with Blythwood in the first stanza on 68 yard pass putting the FSU club on the scoreboard. James Williams booted the PAT for a 7-0 lead. Later in the second frame, Williams kicked a three-pointer thirty yards and the Broncos went to the dressing room ahead, 10-0.

In the fourth quarter Bailey threw an 18 yard TD strike to the Floridian giving the Broncos an 18-0 reserve signal-caller Ernie Cantrell tossed a two-point conversion to wide receiver Rod Crawford.

The "Wayne Blythwood Show" continued in the waning moments of the fourth period when Ernie Cantrell threw a 54 yard TD bomb to the Bronco flanker.

Williams again added the PAT via the toe and finished the scoring and shut-out, 25-0.

All-American candidate James Godwin rushed for 152 yards for the day and leads the league with 724 yards. Blythwood leads the team in scoring with 46 points.

Defensive back Maurice Franks was voted "Most Outstanding on Defense."

FSU travels to Livingstone next week for a CIAA contest.

Vikings Stop FSU, 6-0

What was thought by CIAA fans as a possible "easy" game for Ray McDougal's Fayetteville State Broncos turned out to be a titanic defensive battle here at Elizabeth City's homecoming game.

The final score read: Elizabeth City, 6 and Fayetteville State, 0.

However, Tod Caldwell's club tried to give the game to the visiting Broncos by coughing up the football at least four times when the Fayetteville defensive front recovered the pigskin as many times during the first half inside the Viking's forty yard line.

But the Broncos could not muster a drive offensively. McDougal called on kicking specialist James Williams to boot three points on the scoreboard when the visitors reached the ten yard line after recovering a first half fumble.

FSU Ties Norfolk St. For Lead With Win Over Livingstone

Fayetteville State University's football team and Livingstone's team met her with the same things on their minds. Both coaches realized also what was at stake. It was a "MUST GAME" for both teams.

But when the dust settled at Livingstone's Alumni Stadium, coach Ray McDougal and his Bronco-men had chalked up their fifth straight win and the proud Livingstone squad coached by Baxter Holeman, had dropped their second straight CIAA loss.

The score read 15-7 when the referees signaled the end of the game with the Livingstone team frantically knocking at the Bronco door at the FSU one yard line attempting to score. But time ran out for the home team.

For Fayetteville State, the win moved them into a three-way tie for the league lead and McDougal's squad posts a highly impressive 6-1 overall worksheet and stand 4-1 in the CIAA. However, the Broncos have the best record of the three contenders.

Virginia Union is 4-1 and 5-3 overall; and Norfolk State stands 4-1 and 5-2 overall.

Livingstone is 3-2 overall and 2-2 in the league.

Fayetteville State has three games remaining for the '75 regular season but played the contest with the Livingstone Blue Bears as if it were a "Championship Game."

The hosts wasted little time in getting on the scoreboard first when halfback Bernard Hill raced 15 yards for the initial TD. Andrew Conney converted for a 7-0 Livingstone lead with 13:42 remaining in first stanza.

At this point, the Bears appeared to have the momentum and the visitors seemed stunned and "flat".

However, field goal specialist James Williams booted a 35 yard three-pointer for the Broncos with 10:07 remaining in the second frame to narrow the margin to 7-3.

With only 22 seconds left before the half, a Fayetteville State miscue plus a Livingstone mistake resulted in a touchdown for the Broncos and the lead for good.

VINCENT REID Vincent Reid, FSU golfer, has led to three tournament victories this fall. (See page 7 for related

LUCIEN BLACK VELVET

Jon Lucien
Song For My Lady
including:
Soul Mate/Motherland/Maiden Voyage
Creole Lady/You Are My Love

There are lots of different ways a man can sing a love song to a woman. The way Jon Lucien does it is the most beautiful way of all.

Lucien: he's sensuous, sinuous, relaxed and romantic. In person or on record, a very special man with a very special music. He sold out Carnegie Hall during this summer's Newport Jazz Festival in New York, and he'll be on tour all around the country later on this year.

Lucien: an experience not to be missed. Jon Lucien's new album, "Song for My Lady."

On Columbia Records

AVAILABLE AT
TOPS SOUNDS RECORDS