CIVITAN TO BE CHARTERED AT FSU

According to Gregory Edmond, the Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, Jr. Collegiate Civitan Club will be chartered on the Fayetteville State University Campus very soon. Edmond said he was inspired to introduce a branch of the Civitan Club to the campus by Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, Jr., who is already a member of a chapter in the city.

Edmond cited the Civitan Club as being "a service type organization which strives to build good citizenship and render service where needed". Several committees have been formed which will carry out the functions of the Civitan Club, once chartered. Presently, a total of five committees have been formed to the campus as well as the community, these include: The Scholastic Motivation Committee, The Senior Citizens Committee, The Juvenile Delinquency Committee, The Steering Committee and The Tutorial Program.

Officers of the Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, Jr. Collegiate Civitan Club have been chosen. Gregory Edmond will serve as president; Gwen Levister, vice president; Linder Carter, secretary; Carl Person, treasurer; with Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, Jr. serving as advisor.

NCSL ACTIVATED AT FSU

The North Carolina Student Legislature is a new political organization on campus at Fayetteville State university. It is designed to educate students on legislative procedures and issues on the local, state and national level.

In 1937 a professor from North Carolina State University, Edwin Paget, founded an organization called State Student Legislature which later became the North Carolina Student Legislature which later became the North Carolina Student Legislature. The S.S.L. was concerned with issues of state and national importance. It was not until 1945 that a measure to invite "Negro Colleges" to all future sessions was passed. Consequently the attendance dropped (of white colleges) and on October 30, 1947 the S.S.L. was disbanded by its white officers, but was re-established in November, 1947, and new guidelines were set. As a result, by 1956 it was apparent that the State Student Legislature was here to stay. The S.S.L. became increasingly involved with controversial racial issues, which resulted in a walkout of all black institutions. As of 1971 the S.S.L. finally became the North Carolina Student Legislature, which continued to emphasize state issues, but also began making internal changes. In 1974 Fayetteville State University, along with other predominately black institutions became chartered members of the North Carolina Student Legislature.

The N.C.S.L. dedicates itself to work with the General Assembly (Student Legislature) for constructive changes and improvements of the government of the state. The N.C.S.L. provides learning opportunities of legislative processes and represents all people (students).

The Fayetteville State University delegation is young but full of ideas. We are largely concerned with making the community and campuses aware of the importance of politics on the local, state and national level. The lack of local turnouts at the polls has caught the eye of the F.S.U. delegation. As a result, our project for the 1975-76 year is Voter Registration. We hope that through this project we can increase the number of voters at the polls.

Realizing the many changes and advancements which need to be made at F.S.U., our delegation is drafting a bill for the allocation of additional funds to smaller state supported institutions. Our main purpose being to bring small, state supported institutions within the range of competition with larger state supported institutions.

The service which the Fayetteville State University delegation will be giving the community and campus is one which is so badly needed. Please become aware and get involved. Remember, "the ignorance to politics is reflected through the apathy of the silent majority". Help us help you.
