

DURING YULE SEASON FSU SINGERS TOURING PANAMA

FAYETTEVILLE-The Fayetteville State University (N.C.) vocal Octet, under the direction of Dr. Lemuel Berry, Jr., will tour and present concerts in Panama City, starting December 15.

Dr. Berry, chairman of the music department at FSU, said that this is the second trip for the organization outside the United States since the octet was organized in 1973.

According to Berry, the trip is being sponsored by the Deputy Superintendent of Schools and the Department of Education of the Canal Zone.

The three-day tour of Panama will conclude December 17.

Last February, the octet made a five-day concert tour of Nassau, Bahamas. Later that year during spring break the university choir made a 12-state concert tour which included a two-day stop in Montreal Canada.

Members of the Vocal Octet are: Dr. Lemuel Berry, Jr., Director; Mary Adams, freshman, Fayetteville; Grover Battle, freshman, Washington, D. C.; Clifford Cooper, Freshman, Qwena, N. Y.; Levetta Gainey, sophomore, Fayetteville; Jacqueline Haile, sophomore, Fayetteville; Beverly Heaggans, freshman, Statesville; Donnie Kirby, sophomore, Fayetteville; Eunice McQueen, sophomore, Laurinburg; and Anita Terrell, freshman, Rochester, New York.

INTERN-Fayetteville State University (N.C.) senior coed Juliette McKoy, presently doing first semester internship, is a business administration major. Juliette, a pretty young lady from the Atlantic Ocean city of Wilmington, North Carolina, plans to enter graduate school when she completes her study at FSU in December. (FSU Photo by John B. Henderson)

FIRST PRIZE WINNER-Pakistan native Syed M. Yunus, a faculty member and art instructor at Fayetteville State University (N.C.) recently won first place in the Fayetteville Museum of Art competition. Yunus received a cash prize of $500 and has won first prizes twice in the Annual N. C. Arts Council Show. He admires his "StoneWare Purse" which captured first place and it's titled, "If there is no win Row."

(FSU photo by John B. Henderson)

FSU CONTESTANTS-These three Fayetteville State University (N.C.) coeds recently competed for the title of "MISS VETERAN FOR 1975-76" at FSU. The lovelies are (L-R) Cassandra Calloway, first runner-up; Alfreda McNair, second runner-up; and the new "Miss Veteran" Gail Sales. (FSU Photo John Henderson)

N.C. Student Incentive FINANCIAL AID NEWS

This program is a new grant which is funded by the North Carolina State Education Assistant Authority under the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, from state and federal appropriations.

For the 1975-76 school year, $845,000.00 is available for students who qualify for assistance under the program. To be considered for a

CONSULTANT FROM AFRICA ON CAMPUS-Marc Dagbovie, a native of Togo, West Africa, (left) talks with FSU students in Chestnut Library recently during his visit on the campus. Dagbovie, an expert on African Artifacts explains some of his work to students Patricia Livingston, Wagram, N. C. and William Jacobs, New Castle, Delaware.

Courage Is—A matter of red corpuscles.

NCSIG a student must: (A) have been a legal resident of North Carolina for at least 12 consecutive months (B) Be enrolled in good standing or be accepted for admission (C) Be enrolled or accepted for enrollment full time (12 semester hours each semester in an undergraduate program leading to a degree or certificate) (D) Complete the Parents Confidential Statement or family financial statement and (E) Complete the BEOG application.

For further information and applications contact the Financial Aid Office at FSU.

Deadlines for applications for financial aid for the 1976-77 school year: February 16, 1976 is the deadline for all 1976 Summer School Applications. March 1, 1976 is the deadline for all 1976-77 Upper Class Applications, PCS and SERs.

Parents Confidential Statement (PCS) will be required for the 1976-77 school year. All students who wish to apply for financial aid for 1976-77 school year will be required to file with the College Scholarship Service of Princeton, N. J., a PCS. The PCS should be filed in sufficient time in order that it may be processed and reviewed by the financial aid office by the date designated above. This PCS form may be secured from the Financial Aid Office of FSU.

A human being — that is enough for me; he can't be any worse.

Freshman Fullback Eli Tatum scores at last home game against J. C. Smith University. (Photo by Gil Foust)