

REMOVE THAT "X" & "I" GRADE BEFORE MARCH 15

According to information received from Mrs. Alice C. Jones, Acting Registrar, students have until March 15, 1976 to remove "X" and "I" grades acquired the Fall Semester 1975-76. Failure to do so will cause an "X" or "I" to automatically convert to a grade of "E".

FSU NAMES ALLEN TO HEAD NEW CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROGRAM

Dr. Charles "A" Lyons, Jr., Chancellor of Fayetteville State University announced the receipt of $65,000 federal grant from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA), Washington, D. C., for the development of a new Criminal Justice Program at FSU.

According to the Chancellor, the 18-month grant is designed basically for planning curricula and development of Criminal Justice specialty Tracks at F. S. U.

A Director, Mrs. Jeanette M. Allen, was appointed effective January 1, the Chancellor stated, and has begun work.

A Chicago, Illinois native, Mrs. Allen comes to Fayetteville State University from Kentucky State University, Frankfort, Kentucky, where she served as Assistant Professor in the Criminal Justice Education Department.

Mrs. Allen did undergraduate work at Central State University, Wilberforce, Ohio, and completed the M. S. Degree in Correctional Psychology at Chicago, Illinois.

She has done further study at the University of Illinois, School of Social Work; Ohio State University; and Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Her previous employment experiences include Assistant Professor, Kentucky State University, Assistant Professor, Indiana University of Pennsylvania; Probation Officer-Cook County Juvenile Court, Chicago, Illinois; Psychiatric Social Worker, Ohio Youth Commission; and Child Welfare Worker, Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. Allen is affiliated professionally with the following organizations, Lambda Alpha Epsilon-American Criminal Justice Association, Cook County Probation Officer's Association, National Council of Crime and Delinquency, American Correctional Association, Pennsylvania Association on Probation and Parole and Correction, Indiana County Mental Health Association, and the National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice.

On her appointment, Mrs. Allen said: "I am quite pleased to accept the challenge at FSU and hope that our efforts might lead to the development of a Baccalaureate program in the Criminal Justice field. During the next six weeks, orientation will be held for students and faculty regarding the implementation of the program. Some of the courses will be offered as workshops.

Mrs. J. Allen, Director
