

SUMMER SCHOOL STARTS

The first session of Summer School at Fayetteville State University will start May 25.

The announcement was made by Dr. Ronald Smith, Director of Summer School and Assistant to the Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs at Fayetteville State University.

According to Dr. Smith, the summer program will consist of two five-week sessions with school dormitories opening May 23; registration, May 24; and classes starting May 25.

Smith said that the second session will begin with registration on June 28, and classes on June 29.

The summer program, Dr. Smith added, is aimed primarily at students currently enrolled in regular University programs, inservice teachers who wish to specialize in areas and individuals who wish to improve their professional and social competencies.

For further information contact the Office of Admissions, Fayetteville State University, Fayetteville, North Carolina 28301.

BIG SMILES--These girls have reason to smile. The lady Broncos are the hottest team in the CIAA and they cheer for them. Keep on cheering for the Bronco girls because they are going all the way this year.

Who cares?

GIVE A HOOT!
DON'T POLLUTE

SECOND LIEUTENANT GRADUATES

WICHITA FALLS, Tex.-- An official at Sheppard AFB, Tex., has announced the graduation of Second Lieutenant Maxine Nicholson from the U. S. Air Force's transportation officer course conducted by the Air Training Command.

Lieutenant Nicholson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson of Rt. 1, Hoffman, N.C., was trained in traffic management operations and air, water, rail and motor transportation. She has been assigned to a Military Airlift Command unit at Little Rock AFB, Ark.

A 1971 graduate of Ellerbe (N.C.) High School, the lieutenant received her B.A. degree in 1975 from Fayetteville (N.C.) State University where was commissioned through the Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

READY BRONCO--Senior defensive tackle James Gaddy, 6-1, and 230 pounds, will be one of the mainstays for the team this year and is seeking All-CIAA honors. Gaddy is a native of Wadesboro, N.C. (VOICE Photo by Gil Foust)

Sweet Chariot.

I'm an Air Force officer and this is my sweet chariot. When I visit home people are happy to see me. And proud. They say I'm doing my part in the community by showing the young people and the adults that you really can make it. You really can get your share of the good life.

I also feel good about my position in the Air Force community. I'm a leader there, too. I'm someone the other brothers and sisters I meet in the service can look to. And it reassures them to know they have a voice in Air Force matters that concern them.

The Air Force needs more leaders...pilots...aircrew members...math majors...science and engineering majors. You might be one of them and the best way to find that out is in an Air Force ROTC program. There are two, three, and four-year programs. Scholarship and non-scholarship. Why not look into all of them and see if one fits your plans? It's worth it, brother.

AFROTC Det 607
PHONE 483-6144, ext. 287
WOMEN'S GYMNASIUM, Fayetteville
State University, Fayetteville, NC 28031

Put it all together in Air Force ROTC.

John Dyer
John Dyer, Lt, USAF