

Walt Johnson, head track coach at FSU, continually produced winners in track and field at FSU. The VOICE salutes you and your fine student athletes of the cinder path. (Henderson Photo)

FRESHMAN NEW YORKER MAKES GOOD—This freshman didn't have much difficulty adjusting to the academic climate at Broncoland nor the social climate either. The Empire State beauty made all "As" and one "B" for the first semester at FSU and hopes to do even better this semester. Lovely Dianne Strachan, a native of Rochester, New York, is also a member of the varsity cheerleader squad and the varsity track team. (FSU Photo by J. Henderson)

Bronco Football Looks Good For '76

Gridiron Forecast

Although All-American running back James Godwin

will be missing from the Bronco football lineup this fall, Coach Ray McDougal

GETTING READY FOR '76 GRID SEASON—These FSU football veterans hope to help

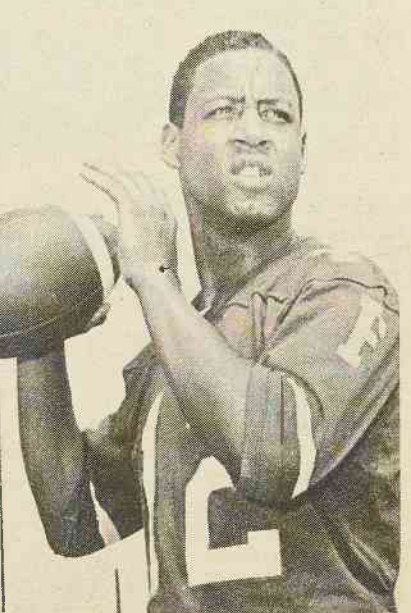

Coach Ray McDougal improve his 7-3 mark last year, which was the best in school's history. Some of the top returnees include (L-R) Phillip Platt, Sr. linebacker;

Ron Crawford, Jr. Split End; Lester Brown, Sr. defensive end; Dave Jones, Sr. defensive end; and Carlos Bailey, Jr. quarterback. (FSU Photo by Henderson)

"New Fastest Human"

AT S.C. TRACK MEET

WOOTEN STARS

James Wooten, senior track sprinter at Fayetteville State, turned in a sparkling performance at the April 2-3 South Carolina State Relays in Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Wooten, coached by veteran FSU track mentor Walter Johnson, won the 100-yard dash event in a time of 9.8 and set a meet record when he won the 200-yard dash.

The Goldsboro, N. C. native shattered former All-Pro wide receiver Bob Hayes' record in the 200-yard dash with a blistering time of 21.3, to take first place in both events.

Coach Johnson has guided many other FSU trackmen to fame which include All-American James Godwin, a high jump champion and football great, and Maurice Franks, champion sprinter.

Other schools participating in the meet were South Carolina State, Pembroke State, and Norfolk State.

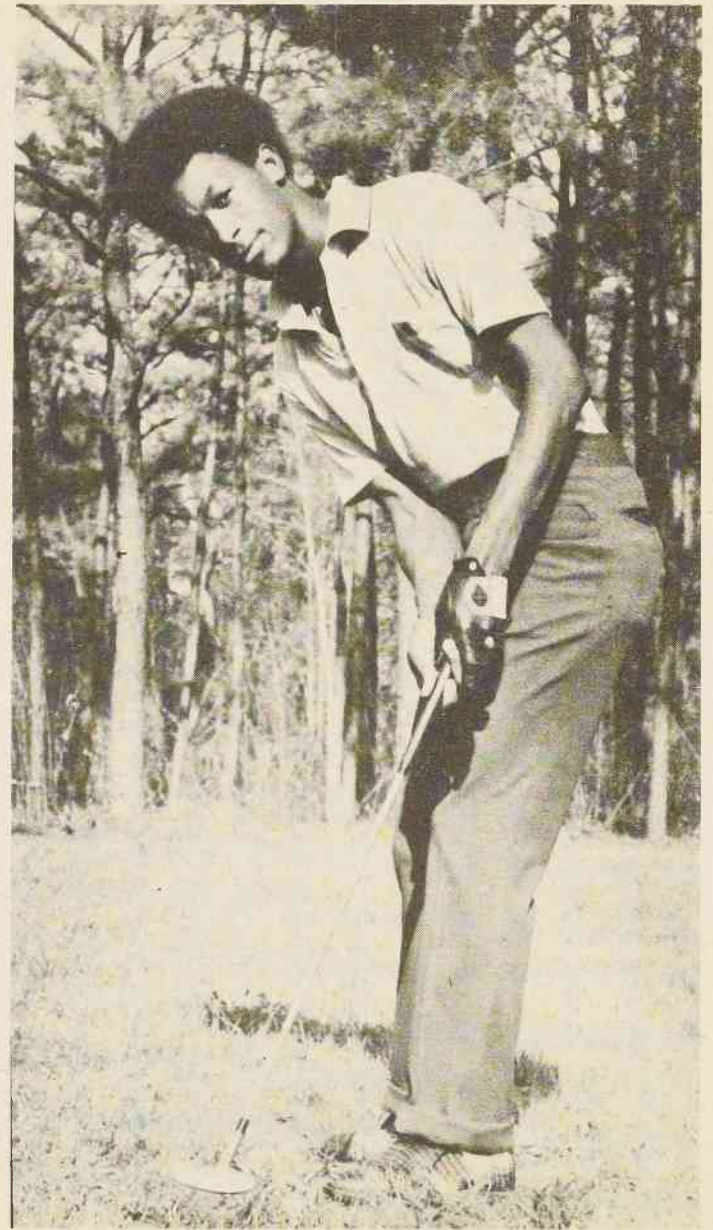

still has a strong nucleus of veterans returning.

McDougal, having experienced his best year in '75 with a 7-3 mark, was awarded the Dist. 29 "Coach of the Year" NAIA award and was named "Co-Coach of the Year" in the CIAA conference with Norfolk's Dick Price. It was the second time in three years that the NAIA has bestowed the honor on the Florida native.

Among veterans returning will be Dave Jones, Phillip Platt, Lester Brown, Ron Crawford, Mike Smith, Andrea Sloan, and Carlos Bailey.

"We might have to rely on a passing attack this year," began the fifth year mentor, in the past we've relied on our ground attack but we lost some fine personnel in Heath (Tim), James Godwin, and James Tucker."

Other graduation losses include Maurice Franks, Jackie Simmons, Charlie Boyd, Reggie Broadneaus, James Saunders, James Gaddy, Morris Godwin, Armond Wrenn, Wayne Blythwood, and Jeff Dawson.

CIAA GOLF CHAMP VINCIENT REID PREPARES TO DEFEND HIS GOLF CROWN APRIL 30 AT WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. IN THE CIAA GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP. REID, A SENIOR FROM GREENSBORO, N.C., IS FAVORED TO REPEAT AS INDIVIDUAL CIAA CHAMP THIS YEAR. (FSU PHOTO BY J. HENDERSON)

1976 FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

DATE		SITE
Sept. 19	Norfolk State	Away
Sept. 25	Shaw University	Home
Oct. 2	Open	Open
Oct. 9	St. Paul's College	Away
Oct. 16	Winston Salem State University	Away
Oct. 23	Livingston College	Home
Oct. 30	Elizabeth City State University	Home
Nov. 6	Bowie State	Home
Nov. 13	Johnson C. Smith University	Away

ELECTIONS (Continued from Page 1)

MISS FSU
Marie Freeman
Joy Van Hook
Gloria Horton
Yvonne Gibson
Mildred Moore

Helen Oliver
Vivian Fuller
Roennell Chrham
MISS STUDENT CENTER
Terry Gillis
Beverly Thompson