FSU Celebrates Centennial Homecoming

The Centennial Homecoming of Fayetteville State University was celebrated the week of October 24-30. Fayetteville State is the second oldest state-supported institution of higher learning in North Carolina. The week long activities which featured dances, student and faculty talent shows, coronation balls, parade and the football homecoming contest between Fayetteville State University and Elizabeth City State was enjoyed by Fayetteville State University students, alumni and friends.

The University which was founded in 1877 is celebrating its Centennial Year with the theme "One Hundred Years of Academic Excellence: A Past to Remember, A Present to Behold, A Future to Mold." The Fayetteville State Homecoming Queen, Miss Joy Van Hook reigned over the festivities.

There was a Homecoming Show at the Cumberland County Memorial Arena featuring the B.T. Express, New Birth, and the Brothers Johnson.

Saturday, October 30th saw the Homecoming Parade, and the Homecoming Football Game.

A grand time was had by all... Color pictures of the Homecoming parade can be ordered at the Student Center.
