Bronco Sports - Bronco Sports

Owens Leads Broncoettes Past Hampton Institute

Katrina Owen's 26 point 27 rebound performance led Fayetteville to an 81-73 victory over the Lady Pirates of Hampton Institute. The Broncoettes jumped to an early 8-2 lead and never trailed. Hampton's Cynthia Thompson, who had a team high 20 points, scored 10 in the first half. However, her performance was not enough to offset Owen's overpowering performance as the 6'4" All-CIAA performer scored 16 points and grabbed 17 rebounds to lead the Broncoettes to a ten point 45-35 halftime lead. The second half saw Fayetteville lead by as many as 13 points before Hampton closed the gap near the end of the game only to lose by eight.

Since her return to the Broncoette lineup, K.O. (as Owens is called) has been nothing short of spectacular. In the nine games in which she has played, the Broncoettes are 6-3 losing only to an undefeated Louisburg squad, a strong Peace College team and Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association (CIAA) Southern Division leader Winston-Salem State. "K.O. adds a new dimension to our team," states Head Coach Maceo Smith, "her shot blocking abilities cover up a lot of defensive mistakes and on offense she gives us a strong inside game." Last year K.O. earned All-CIAA honors and this year her 23 points per game and 21.8 rebounds per game averages makes her a prime candidate for national as well as conference honors.

Broncoettes Shock St. Augustine

The Broncoettes of Fayetteville State University got revenge for an early season 98-62 drubbing at the hands of St. Augustine's College. They defeated the Falconettes 91-79 Saturday in Broughton High School's Gymnasium. The Broncoettes were led by Freshman Katrina Bullock's 20 points. Bullock entered the game midway through the first half and hit five of her first six shots from the floor leading the Broncoettes to a 42-39 half time lead. For the Falconettes, Tonya Gibbons and Francine Watkins kept the Broncoettes from running away with it as they scored eight and nine points respectively. Outstanding Freshman Dignithia Morris chipped in eight first half points for Fayetteville.

In the second half, St. Augustine could only get within three points of FSU as All-CIAA performers Angela Newsome and Katrina Owens began to come on. Newsome and Owens finished with 17 points and Morris added 16. Another Freshman, Jessie Elmore, contributed 13 points and five steals.

"This victory shows just how far we've come," stated first year coach Maceo Smith. "St. Augustine's Falconettes are one of the top teams in the league and this win builds our confidence for the upcoming CIAA Women's Tournament. With the addition of K.O. (Owens) to go along with the already outstanding play of Newsome and Morris, I think we're just beginning to peak."

Jefferson Leads FSU In One Sided Victory Over Shaw

The FSU Broncos, led by the hot shooting of All-CIAA Ed Jefferson, defeated the Shaw University Bears 91-67. Jefferson hit on 11 of 18 shots from the field enroute to a game high 22 points. Walter Harper scored on eight field goals and four of six foul shots for a team high 20 points for the losing team.

Fayetteville burst out to an early 10-2 lead, highlighted by a mid-court lob from Charles Peoples to Kenny Howell which ended in a crowd stirring dunk, and never trailed. The Broncos then rode the scoring of Jefferson and guard James Jackson to a 47-32 half time lead. Harper kept the Bears close as he garnered 12 points in the first half. Shaw's Keith Smith, the CIAA and NCAA Division II leading rebounder, fell victim to early foul trouble and had only two points and two rebounds at the half. In the second half, the Broncos continued to run in the second half and won going away 91-67. The Broncos are now 7-7 overall and 4-4 in the CIAA.

CAMPUS HAPPENINGS

The following persons were recently elected to offices in the Fayetteville State University's Accounting Club: President - Melvin Mason, Vice President - James Holland, Secretary-Treasurer - Ulyses Taylor, and Asst. Secretary-Treasurer - Clara McIntoch.

The purposes of the Accounting Club are to provide academic assistance to accounting students, perform community services related to account practices, and to interface with business entities in the local community.

Membership is extended to all business students and members of the faculty. All students must have at least a grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 or higher. Membership dues are only $1.

Keep on the lookout for announcements of our monthly meetings. Belonging is the name of the game. So why not join us.

Business students, contact Ulyses Taylor for your membership card now.

FAYETTEVILLE STATE'S CHARTER OF NCFC

by Edith Holloway

A charter of the North Carolina Federation of College Democrats was established on the campus of Fayetteville State University on December 7, 1978.

Dr. Thomas Woodworth, President of the 7th Congressional District, was available to tell the functions of the N.C.F.C.D. and to answer any questions. The N.C.F.C.D. is for ages 18-35. There are three levels of this organization: Young Democrats of America (YDA)-national; Young Democrats of N.C. (YDNC)-state; and county clubs which are on the same level as the NCFC-D.

Fayetteville State University could grow with the support of the people of Fayetteville and the N.C.F.C.D.

The elected officers of the FSU charter are: President - Charlisa Davis, Vice-President - Marie Lacewell, Secretary - Edith Holloway, and Treasurer - Felicia McLean.

Our membership at the present time is composed of eighteen (18) young ladies. We desire the membership of other young men and young ladies.

VETERAN'S ORGANIZATION

by Ronnie D. Whitted, Vice-President

I want to take this opportunity to urge all veterans and dependents of veterans to become active members in the Veterans Organization. There are over 200 veterans affiliated with Fayetteville State University. We urgently need your support.

CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

Anyone interested in joining a creative writing club which will be operative this semester, please see Dr. Edward McShane in Butler 122.

DAY STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Do you live off campus and commute? If so, you automatically belong to the Day Student Association.

Last semester the majority of day students did not become involved in the association but with improved communications this is expected to change. Please be on the lookout for announcements of meetings and become involved.

LEARN TAE KWON DO

Are you interested in learning the basic fundamentals of the Korean martial art of Tae Kwon Do? If so, classes are being held in the dance studio of the Women's Gym, Tuesday and Thursday nights, from 7-9. All that is required is a strong desire.

ROTC CORNER

First Lieutenant Ophelia D. Blyther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Blyther of Route 1, Ellerbe, has graduated from the Air University's academic instructor course at Maxwell Air Force Base, Alaska.

During the highly specialized courses, students study learning theory, communicative skills, teaching methods and give presentations on educational television.

Lieutenant Blyther is returning to Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, for duty as an education and training officer with a unit of the Air Training Command.

The Lieutenant is a 1976 graduate of Fayetteville State University and was commissioned here through the Reserve Officers Training Corps program.
