Basketball Outlook For 1980-81 Season

By John Henderson
Sports Information Direction
 Second-year coach, Jake Ford of Fayetteville State University, will seek to improve his 14-12 overall worksheet and 7-9 CIAA conference mark during the 1979 campaign.

However, he admits that it will not be an easy task.

"We will be very young and will probably have to use some first-year players along with our veterans right away," Ford said.

Losses suffered through graduation by the Bronco squad include All-CIAA forward Ed Jefferson (24.3 ppg and seven rpg); center Jeff Ballard (12.8 ppg and nine rpg); and James Jackson, guard, five points per game.

The Bronco quintet will be led this season by junior guard

Richard Robinson, who averaged over 10 points per outing. Senior forward Steve Mims, a 6-7 jumping-jack who was second in scoring last year and pulled down over eight rebounds a game, also second on the squad in this category, will be one of the keys to Bronco success this hardwood campaign.

Point guard and senior Charles Peoples along with junior guard Bonny McNeill will be battling for the position in the Bronco camp.

Newcomers Lanier Gobbs, Joel Harris, and Craig Talley will help in the rebounding department.

"We will be rebuilding this year," Ford said, "and will be one of the youngest and smallest teams in the tough CIAA conference."

By George, He Has Done It

Another collegiate football season has ended and the greatest honor was awarded on December 1. The recipient of the Heismann Trophy was Running back George Rogers.

Rogers is the first ever to win the Heismann for the South Carolina Gamecocks. He ended his college football career with 14 touchdowns and a total of 1,718 yards.

Other candidates for the Heismann were Hugh Green from the University of Pittsburgh and Herschel Walker from the University of Georgia.

Wadford Gets CIAA Honor

Bertie R. Wadford

Bertie R. Wadford has made All CIAA for the past two seasons. He averages 40.3 per kick (punt) and in his best game against Winston Salem he averaged 50.1 yards and kicked (punted) one for 81 yards in that game. Bertie is a barefoot punter from St. Stephen, S. C.

He is the only repeat CIAA performer. Ike Hall and Kenneth Tillman made the sports writers All CIAA picks. Bertie Wadford made Sports writers and coaches All CIAA.

Next year will be his senior year and he is a good prospect for Professional football. Bertie Wadford and Ronald Guions will be the only CIAA performers returning for FSU.

Ronald Guions made All CIAA last year as a specialist kick returner. Both hope to repeat All CIAA honors. Good Luck!!
