The Fort Bragg Campus

By Shari Johnson

The Fort Bragg Campus is an extension program that offers Associate of Arts degrees for active duty personnel and their dependents. There are twenty-four disciplines offered at the campus located on the military installation. Institutions across the country and overseas recognize and respond to the needs of service men and women for adult continuing education. The FSU Fort Bragg Campus is one of the many institutions fulfilling this need.

Senior Class Notes

The next senior class meeting will be held on March 21, 1985, at 2:00 p.m. in the Rudolph Jones Student Center Multipurpose Room. All seniors are asked to be present and on time.

Seniors have been assessed a fee of $20.00 for class dues to be paid as soon as possible. Dues can be paid at the Rudolph Jones Student Center information counter, Monday through Friday.

DarRam Enterprises, Inc., will be here on March 18 and 19, and April 18 and 19, 1985 in the lobby area of the Rudolph Jones Student Center to sell gold and silver jewelry and fashion accessories.

The senior class will sponsor a "Sadie Hawkins Dance" on Saturday, March 23, 1985 from 9:00 pm - 2:00 am. Admission is $1.00 w/ID and $2.00 without/ID. The general public is invited to attend.
