A U. of Texas Fraternity issued a public apology after the Black Students' Alliance objected to its posters for an annual party. The event is named in honor of a former porter at the fraternity, and posters and ads for the party included a caricature of the man, who is black. When BSA protesters showed up at the party, the Pi Kappa Alpha brothers apologized for having offended them, and persuaded some of the protesters to join the party.

A former pledgemater of a Rutgers U. fraternity received a $250 suspended fine as a sentence for a hazing charge made against him last year. The municipal judge who issued the sentence said he would deal severely with future hazing cases, but chose to suspend the fine in this case because the young man had already put in 70 hours of community service.
