

"Looking Back Through The Years"

Founders Day
Here
April 11, 1953

THE VOICE

"Digest Of Student Opinion"

Attend I. D. A.
April 16, 17, 18,
1953

VOLUME VII

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., MARCH 13, 1953

NUMBER 3

MARCH 16, 1953

THE VOICE

PAGE FIVE

"Miss Omega"
Crowned Oct. 10

The Delta Gamma Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity started its activities this year by giving a smoker for young men and upper-classmen who were interested at the college.

Miss Josephine Russell was chosen as the chapter's Sweetheart and was crowned "Miss Omega" October 10, 1952, and enjoyed the many activities which included a specially-prepared dinner of her own choice at Arthur's Sea Food Grill on Person Street.

A float representing the Greek letter Delta was entered in the Homecoming parade which was held November 14, 1952.

The chapter acted as host for

Choir Appears In
New Auditorium

The choir of Fayetteville State Teachers College, consisting of fifty-five voices, had the honor of being the first organization to appear in the new auditorium on Sunday, December 14, at 4:00 p. m. when it gave its annual Christmas concert. The new auditorium, recently completed at a cost of $185,000, enhanced the rendition of a series of selections from Tchaikowsky's "Nutcracker Suite." At the piano during the concert was Miss Loran Pitt, a sophomore from Tarboro, North Carolina.

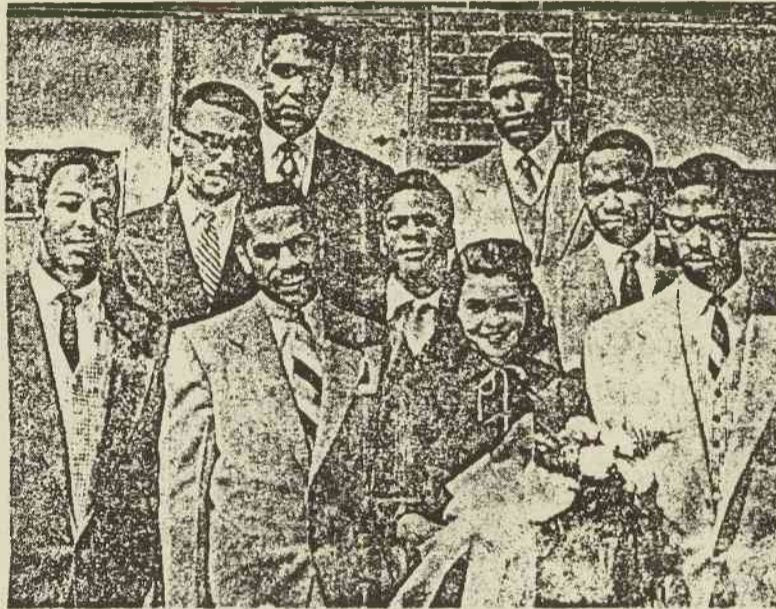

As special guests, the members of the choir appeared at Fort Bragg, giving a program sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and broadcast over a local station. The impression made was so great that during Religious Emphasis Week they were requested to provide the music for a Sunday morning service at Chapel Number Eight at Fort Bragg.

The music for the annual "State Teachers College Day" program, given this year at the First Baptist Church, was also furnished by our choir.

Aware of its heavy schedule, with appearances in such places as Tarboro, Wilson, and Goldsboro (in North Carolina), together with a spring tour provided for it by the alumni, the members are working continuously to make this year's choir the greatest in the history of the school.

For the recent loss of his father, who passed on February 17, 1953, the choir wishes to express its sympathy to James Baten, one of its members.

Omegas' Charmer

MISS JOSEPHINE RUSSELL, a senior from Raleigh, North Carolina, who was chosen for the Omega Sweetheart. Names to be read from left to right are (first row)—James Killian, co-editor; Ervin Biggs, Basileus; Miss Russell and Arthenus Dew; (second row)—Dennison Gaynor, K.R.S.; William McNair; Emm McKinnon, co-editor; (third row)—Wilbur King, vice-basileus; and James Baten. Lawrence Jackson, George Fitzpatrick, and James Faison were absent when the picture was taken.

Alpha Kappa
Alpha Sorority

The fall and winter quarters have been filled with successful activities for the Delta Alpha Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. During the months of November and December, members of the sorority collected clothing from the college family to send to the Oxford Orphanage. This project was very successful and

"Finer Womanhood
Week" Program
Sponsored By Zetas

Featuring as guest speaker Miss Evelyn C. Pope, librarian at North Carolina College at Durham, the local Omega Beta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority sponsored

Delta Sigma
Theta Sorority

On November 8, 1952, the Delta Xi Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, was established in Fayetteville, North Carolina, by Soror Pauline F. Weeden, charming director of the Eastern Region. Sorors Fain and Hill of Lynchburg, Va., assisted Soror Weeden.

The chapter members are Sorors Cleopatra Griswold, Gladys Lunsford, Swanola Moorning, Naomi Pitt, Dorothy Powell, Geraldine Stevens, and Aileen Watson.

The graduate sorors at Fayetteville State and those in the city, together with graduate sorors from over Eastern Carolina, participated in the initiation ceremonies. The charter sorors were welcomed into the family of "Greeks" by the letter organizations on the campus.

During National Book Week, November 16-23, 1952, the members of the Delta Xi Chapter prepared a bulletin board on display in our library, using the theme "Not Learning to Read, but Reading to Learn." Our chapter presented the Charles Waddell Chesnut Library with a revised edition of the Holy Bible.

On November 25, 1952 our freshmen girls rushed to the recreation room of Bickett Hall in short dresses, pigtailed, socks, ribbons and bows to be entertained at a "Kiddie Party" given in their honor.

Three members of the Delta Xi Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority at Fayetteville State

Student Council
Pushes Ahead

The fast pace of doing things and of getting things done, set by the Student Council at the beginning of the school year, has not ceased. Under the leadership of the executive committee, along with its faithful members and advisors, this organization has pushed steadily forward.

The Student Council has planned a full program of activities gar Peoples, treasurer; Raymond Pollard, parliamentarian; and Georgianna Granger, public relations director.

—Ann Clark

THE VOICE

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE STUDENT BODY

Edited And Published By The Students

FAYETTEVILLE STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

Fayetteville, North Carolina

STAFF

EDITOR	Dorothy Powell
ASSOCIATE EDITORS	Theresa Iva Hogans Cleopatra Griswold Wilbert King
BUSINESS MANAGER	James Dew
CIRCULATION MANAGERS	Aileen Watson Ervin Farmer
REPORTERS	Queen Pitt Doris Fridgen
TYPISTS	Florence Hogans Clara Lewis Shirley Holley
COPYISTS	Gladys Lunsford Barbara Vailes Helen Mills Myrtle Bailey Gloria Francis Evelyn Smith
ADVISOR	Werner L. Jordan