WE'RE LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD

PHOTOGRAPHERS!

Whether you've been a shutter bug all your life, you've been taking classes to become one or you've just got a good eye, the VOICE could use your help. The rigors of academia (and graduation) have left us one photo editor and a couple of photographers shy.

If you would like to enter the fast and, well, relatively exciting world of photo journalism, stop by our office and apply.

President's Column

Mighty Broncos,

After a refreshing and enjoyable summer, we will be faced with numerous academic and social tasks while walking along these lengthy roads of success. The element of time is but an accompanying factor in all our lives. Thus, it is imperative that we continually focus our attention in the direction which will allow us to achieve our primary goals.

Broncos, if we are going to succeed then we must adhere to the Bronco Creed which may be stated as follows:

I am a Bronco because I possess the potential for academic and social growth,

I am a Bronco because I am strong, self-motivated, and resilient.

I have pride, dignity and respect for all righteous causes. I am willing to fulfill my positive goals today as well as tomorrow.

I am mindful and willing to help others obtain their positive goals.

I am a Bronco because I believe in the power of the "White and Blue" and above all,

I am a Bronco because I believe in myself.

Welcome to the 1985-86 academic school year at FSU.

Second Annual Campus Search For English Leather Musk Man Set

Last year more than 300 colleges representing more than 2 million students competed in a national campus search for a student to represent English Leather Musk men's toiletries in national advertising. The second annual "Campus Search for the English Leather Musk Man" is now underway to find the 1986 student who will represent the company. Campus winners will receive gift sets of English Leather, and the national winner will receive cash and prizes.

To enter you must be an enrolled college or university student. Contestants or friends of contestants must send one photograph, color or black and white, taken within the last six months to Campus Search for English Leather Musk Man, care of the editor in chief of this newspaper. The photos must be no longer than 8" x 10" or smaller than 3" x 5" and should have the contestants name, address, school and age on the back. No purchase is necessary to enter. The editorial staff of this paper will select a male student representative of this campus as a national finalist. A panel of judges, selected by the manufacturer, will review photos of the campus winners and select the national winner. The English Leather Musk Man will win a cash contribution of $1,000 towards his tuition, an all expense paid

Younger Scholars Program

Guidelines and application forms for the Younger Scholars Program of the National Endowment for the Humanities are now available for photocopying in the Placement Office. The Program will award up to 100 grants nationally to college and high school students to conduct their own research and writing projects in such fields as history, philosophy, and the study of literature. Applicants must be 21 years of age or under throughout the calendar year in which the application is submitted; or, if they are over 21, they must be full-time college students pursuing an undergraduate degree at the time of application. Individuals who will have received or expect to receive a bachelor's degree by October 1, 1986, are not eligible to apply. The application deadline is November 1, 1985.

Recipients of these awards will receive a stipend of $1,800 and be expected to work full time for nine weeks during the summer of 1986, researching and writing a humanities paper under the close supervision of a humanities scholar. Please note that this is not a financial aid program and that no academic credit should be sought for these projects.

If guidelines are not available at the Placement Office, please write to:
