Final Home Game For Men: An Upset

By Marion Gore

The Bronco's of Fayetteville State University faced a second defeat home in two nights by the Saint Augustine Falcons. Thursday, February 13, the Falcons took control of the court and dominated throughout the game. Going into a half-time lead of only one point 36-35, the night was over for the Bronco's. The Falcons would lead by as much as 16 points. The Bronco's high scorers were: Travis Adams (#20) with 25 points, and Kirby Smith (#24) with 20 points. For the Falcons, high scorers were Darry Johnson (#32) with 24 points and Randal Mounts (#42) with 24 points.

Broncos Fall To Rams

By Chris Miller

The Fayetteville State men's basketball squad fell short to an explosive Winston-Salem team February 3, 1986 by a count of 91 to 80. Winston-Salem ended the first half of play leading with a score of 52 to 38. During the second half the Broncos outscored the Rams 42 to 39. This was to no avail because F.S.U. was short on time on the clock which was an important factor. Fayetteville State had three to place in double figures. They were Derrik Sheffield with eleven points, Travis Adams with twenty-five, Kirby Smith with twenty. The leaders for the visiting squad where Steve Hood and Alexander Hooper, both with twenty-six points, Charlie Spell had twenty, and Harry Giles scored ten.

Girls Upset By Lady Falcons

By Marion Gore

On Wednesday, February 12, the Lady Broncos played their final home game hosting the Saint Augustine Falcons. The first half scores 35-39 (Bronco's Favor) had no lasting effect as to the outcome of the game. Despite the fact that the Lady Broncos played a good defensive game and held on to the lead at half time by four points, the falcons came back and defeated the lady Broncos 94-83. Pam Wells (#25) led the Lady Broncos with 25 points and Lisa Green (#20) of the Broncos scored 19 points.

Lady Broncos Rally Past Lady Rams

By Chris Miller

Feb. 3, 1986 the Winston-Salem Lady Rams arrived at F.S.U. to challenge our lady Broncos in a CIAA basketball contest. The Rams which led the game at the end of the first half by a score of 51 to 48 could not hold on to this lead at the start of the second half. F.S.U. then rallied over the visiting squad by out scoring them by a margin of 48 to 34. The game ended with the final score of F.S.U. 96 Winston-Salem 85. Fayetteville State had three ladies to hit in double figures. They were Annetta Faulcon with sixteen, Lisa Green and Dimple White with twenty-two points respectively. For Winston-Salem, they also had three in double figures, Donna Johnson and Keena Menefee hitting sixteen each, and Carol Huntley hitting a game high of thirty-six points in a losing effort.

WSS Downs FSU

By Chris Miller

The male Broncos where out-scored by fourteen points here, February 5, 1986 at the end of the first half by the Winston-Salem Rams. The Bronco's were led by Derrik Sheffield with eleven, Travis Adams with twenty-five, and Kirby Smith with twenty points respectively. For the visiting Rams, Alexander Hooper and Steve Hood each scored twenty-six points, and Charlie Spell scored twenty to pace their team to victory.

FSU Wins By One

The Lady Broncos of Fayetteville State rallied up another-one in the winning section February 5, 1986. FSU led by 59 to 58 in the second half before total chaos broke out between the Norfolk State squad and their coach over a referee's call. The incident stopped the game, giving the F.S.U. ladies an easy win. Double figure scorers for the Broncos were Annet Faulcon with eleven, Lisa Green with thirteen, and Dimple White with twenty points. For Norfolk State, Stephanie Roulach and Sharron Trapps had ten, Ann Theus had twenty points, and Zina Little hit eleven.
