A Note From The Editor

By STEPHEN T. WARD

WELCOME!

As there are changes in almost every aspect of the university, the Broncos' Voice has been revitalized also. With an almost new staff consisting of 15 members, and a new advisor, Dr. Alex Nakireru, our intention is to be the best newspaper this FSU has ever had. Though Dr. Glenda Sexton is no longer our advisor, she's our bridge when we're faced with roadblocks.

The Broncos' Voice is your newspaper. Our success depends on your support. Our mission is to keep you informed, to answer questions, to sound your voice, and to entertain. Also, we intend to publish a paper every two weeks.

I'm pretending FSU is a city; and, the Voice is the city's newspaper. It is my goal that one day I'll read a line in the Fayetteville Observer something like this: "As stated in the Broncos' Voice, yesterday Dr. Hackley..."

We need news and good stories. Call us, 486-1357. Also, we strongly encourage Letters to the Editor. Remember, we stand behind our name, The Broncos' Voice. Here's to a great year!

Dear New Student

Welcome to Fayetteville State University. Our faculty staff administration and student body are pleased that you have selected FSU to pursue your educational goals.

If you were unable to participate in one of the optional "Fall Preview" New Student Orientation dates on July 7, 14, or 21, 1989, we have made special arrangements for you to attend Orientation for the fall '89 semester beginning August 12-16, 1989. The purpose of New Student Orientation is to provide you with information and direction on the following:

- Purpose and outcomes of New Student Orientation
 - New student in-processing
 - Placement testing
 - Residence Hall check-in
 - Medical clearance information
 - Financial Aid advisement
 - Registration procedures
 - Academic major information
 - Student activities
- New student Orientation activities will be held for students and parents in the Old Chestnut Library (West Campus) beginning promptly at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, August 12. New students are classified as freshmen, transfer students, readmitted, and weekend and evening students.

Again, welcome to Fayetteville State University. We look forward to seeing you.

Sincerely,
Henry A. Gardner
Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs

From The Desk Of The President

As SGA President, I would like to personally welcome you to Fayetteville State University. Your decision to further your education is one of the most important decisions you will ever make. We are privileged that you have selected FSU.

The Student Government Association, fondly known as SGA, is YOUR organization. SGA officially represents the entire student body. So that you will know who we are, SGA officers include your president, Beverly Hicks; Roger Pilgrim, vice president; Tenetta Wiggins, business manager; and MISS FSU, Tammye Jenkins.

We are committed to shaping a system that will effectively serve your needs. There are numerous opportunities available through the SGA which will allow you to become active in shaping the future of our student body and University. It is our hope that you will become involved with SGA and strive to better yourself and your University.

Sincerely,
Beverly Hicks
President, SGA

New Student Advertisement Center

A new Student Advisement Center, which will serve the needs of all students enrolled in the School of Business and Economics, officially opened on July 1, 1989. The Center, directed by Mrs. Norma T. McLaughlin, is located in Room 340 of the Butler Building and houses all business students' records. All matters relative to undergraduate issues is handled in the Center; thus, business students no longer have to go through a maze of offices to obtain the assistance which they need. The faculty continues to serve as career counselors.

The center is open Monday - Friday from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. During the first, second, and third weeks of each semester the Center is also open on Wednesday and Thursday evenings and on Saturday morning, respectively.

Every business student is encouraged to visit the Center and to make an appointment for personal advisement during each semester. Students with less than 45 semester hours of credit will continue to be advised through the College of Arts and Sciences.

New Organizational Structure

Since July 1, the School of Business and Economics has operated under a new organizational structure, replacing department chairs with assistants to the dean and program directors.

Dr. Assad Tavakoli, Assistant Dean, is Director of the MBA Program and Chair of the Graduate Curriculum and Policy Committee. Dr. Rose T. Vaughan, Assistant to the Dean, is Director of Undergraduate Studies and Chair of the Undergraduate Curriculum and Policy Committee. Dr. Inder Nij-hawan will continue as Director of the Center for Economic Education. Mrs. Norma T. McLaughlin, Assistant to the Dean, serves as Director for Student Advisement. A Student Advisory Committee, composed of presidents and vice presidents of student organizations, and a Strategic Planning Committee, as appointed by the Dean, will provide input into the operation of the School.

The new organizational structure is designed to more effectively serve the needs of the students.

NEW...Scholarship Fundraiser

Aluminum cans are being collected for recycling and for raising money for a scholarship fund for the School of Business & Economics.

Everyone is asked to bring cans to the hall outside Room 340 of the Butler Building. Please help us to help our students; an empty can can help to save a mind.
