Support Our Team

BY PET GEARHART

In case you missed it, the BRONCO football season has already started. The team right now is still hovering at 0-3, but as the team members practice with Coach Mac and build on their strengths, things may get better. Saturdays game was not played to packed stadium, but there was plenty of action, both on and off the field. Refreshments were available and the bands did their best despite the hot temperature and the rain.

The next home game will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 30 at the BRONCO Stadium. So come on out and support our team. Knowing that we stand behind them can only motivate them to do their best. GO BRONCOS!!!

Support These Men

1989 FSU Volleyball Team

BY ANTHONY MCCOLLUM and ERIC LEWIS

The scene is deadly serious and the determined young women at the practice floor were working hard in practice. An equally stern and determined coach at the side lines shouted instructions and encouraged the team. Volleyball Coach, Dr. Peggy Green, talked about the volleyball's team confidence in competitions at this year's CIIA.

The Lady Broncos finished fourth in the conference last year and some returning players like Shiela Seward, Beverly Hicks, and Rose Woods will help lead the team to a successful year. Team leader, Shiela Seward made the All CIIA Volleyball team and All Tournament Team Volleyball for 1988-89 season, will also be active.

Coach Green says, "the Fayetteville State University Women's Volleyball team is determined to be successful in the 1989 season." The one thing the team has to overcome though is the mental lapse they have right now. The difference between this year's team and last year's team is this year's team is very quick.

The expectations for the Lady Broncos Volleyball team for the 1989 season is very high and a good team spirit will be the key to the success. Fans, of the Lady Broncos, "let's support them by showing up at the games and cheering them on!"

Athletes Need to Up Their GPA's

NASHVILLE, TENN.—College athletes will be required to earn better grades if they want to complete, the National Collegiate Athletic Association decided at its annual January meeting.

The new rule, sponsored by the policy-making NCAA Council, sets, for the first time, uniform oversell grade-point standards for eligibility. Effective Aug. 1, 1989, athletes will need a 1.6 cumulative grade-point on a 4.0 scale after their first season of competition. After the second season, student-athletes must have 1.8, and a 2.0 after their third and subsequent seasons.
