

Sports

FINALLY! FINALLY! FINALLY!

Fayetteville State Downs Livingstone For First Win

SALISBURY (AP) - Keeneth Fralzer ran for two touchdowns and Anthony Barnes threw a fourth-quarter touchdown pass on Saturday to rally Fayetteville State to a 20-13 CIAA victory over Livingstone.

Both teams are 1-8. Fralzer's scoring runs, 1 and 12 yards, gave the Broncos a 12-0 lead after they missed both conversion kicks.

Livingstone got to within 12-7 after Cedric Burgess intercepted a Barnes pass and returned it 68 yards. James Simpson kicked the conversion.

The Bears took the lead with 14:05 left to play on a 2-yard run by Aaron Geddis, but Simpson missed the conversion.

Barnes hit Anthony Edwards on a 19-yard scoring play on a drive after the kickoff with 11:21 left, and the pair connected on the 2-point conversion for the victory.

This article was taken from The Fayetteville Observer-Times, Sunday Morning, November 5, 1989.

The First Annual CAPE FEAR CLASSIC Basketball Doubleheader

November 17 and 18
7:00 p.m.

Cumberland County Arena

Featuring the

FAYETTEVILLE STATE
Broncos

LIVINGSTONE COLLEGE
Bears

FRANCIS MARION COLLEGE
Patriots

PAINE COLLEGE
Lions

Cape Fear Classic Tickets

Cape Fear Classic Tickets are available at Fayetteville State University and Cumberland County Arena. Tickets may also be purchased from FSU athletic club members, FSU Alumni Office, Baby Boomers of Cumberland County, and foundation members.

