Sorry!

We made a couple of errors in our last two issues, so let's set the record straight.

In the Dec. 11, 1990 issue, we reported that FSU was ranked number three in composite SAT scores among the five historically Black colleges in the UNC system. It is with regret that we tell you we erred, however, it is with pride that we tell you FSU is actually ranked number two in that category.

And in the Jan. 29, 1991 edition, we told you about the first annual Miss FSU Scholarship Pageant. We incorrectly reported that it would be held on Feb. 20, but, in actuality, it will be held on April 20, 1991, at Seabrook Auditorium. We also credited the FSU Counseling Center with sponsorship of the event, but it is the Student Government Association that is responsible for the pageant.

The Broncos' Voice regrets the errors and any inconvenience they may have caused.
