USA Today, in cooperation with four higher education associations, is beginning its annual search for the nation's best college students. Sixty of them will be named to our 1992 All-USA Academic Team. The students selected will be featured in a special section of the newspaper, planned for mid-February. The 20 first-team members will be invited to receive their awards at a ceremony in Washington, DC. Each of the first team members will receive a $2500 cash award. Any full-time undergraduate is eligible. Each nomination must be signed by a faculty member familiar with the student's work and an administrator. Winners will be selected by a panel of educators, chosen in cooperation with the co-sponsors. The criteria are designed to find students who excel not only in scholarship but in leadership roles on and off campus. For additional information come by the Broncos' Voice office or call 486-1357.

The Dow Jones Newspaper Fund is offering all college Juniors, seniors and graduate students the opportunity to apply for one of 40 $1000 scholarships that are offered as part of the 1992 Newspaper Editing Intern Program. For additional information come by the Broncos' Voice office or call 486-1357.
